

§ 54C-12. Criteria to be met before the Commissioner of Banks may recommend approval of an application.

(a) The Commissioner of Banks may recommend approval of an application to form a mutual savings bank only when all of the following criteria are met:

- (1) The proposed savings bank has an operational expense fund, from which to pay organizational and incorporation expenses, in an amount determined by the Commissioner of Banks to be sufficient for the safe and proper operation of the savings bank, but in no event less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000). The moneys remaining in the expense fund shall be held by the savings bank for at least one year from its date of licensing. No portion of the fund shall be released to an incorporator or director who contributed to it, nor to any other contributor, nor to any other person, and no dividends shall be accrued or paid on the funds without the prior approval of the Commissioner of Banks.
- (2) The proposed savings bank has pledges for deposit accounts in an amount to be determined by the Commissioner of Banks to be sufficient for the safe and proper operation of the savings bank, but in no event less than four million dollars ($4,000,000).
- (3) All entrance fees for deposit accounts of the proposed savings bank have been made with legal tender of the United States.
- (4) The name of the proposed savings bank will not mislead the public and is not the same as an existing depository institution or so similar to the name of an existing depository institution as to mislead the public.
- (5) The character, general fitness, and responsibility of the incorporators and the initial board of directors of the proposed savings bank, a majority of whom shall be residents of North Carolina, will command the confidence of the community in which the proposed savings bank intends to locate.
- (6) There is reasonable demand and necessity in the community that will be served by the establishment of the proposed savings bank.
- (7) The public convenience and advantage will be served by the establishment of the proposed savings bank.
- (8) The proposed savings bank will have a reasonable probability of sustaining profitable and beneficial operations in the community.
- (9) The proposed savings bank, if established, will promote healthy and effective competition in the community in the delivery to the public of savings institution services.

(b) The Commissioner of Banks may recommend approval of an application to form a stock savings bank only when all of the following criteria are met:

- (1) The proposed savings bank has prepared a plan to solicit subscriptions for capital stock in an amount determined by the Commissioner of Banks to be sufficient for the safe and proper operation of the savings bank, but in no event less than three million dollars ($3,000,000).
- (2) The name of the proposed savings bank will not mislead the public and is not the same as an existing depository institution or so similar to the name of an existing depository institution as to mislead the public; and contains the wording "corporation," "incorporated," "limited," "company," or an abbreviation of one of these words or other words sufficient to distinguish stock savings banks from mutual savings banks.

- (3) The character, general fitness, and responsibility of the incorporators, initial board of directors, and initial stockholders of the proposed savings bank will command the confidence of the community in which the proposed savings bank intends to locate.
- (4) All subscriptions for capital stock of the proposed savings bank have been purchased with legal tender of the United States.
- (5) There is a reasonable demand and necessity in the community that will be served by the establishment of the proposed savings bank.
- (6) The public convenience and advantage will be served by the establishment of the proposed savings bank.
- (7) The proposed savings bank will have a reasonable probability of sustaining profitable and beneficial operations in the community.
- (8) The proposed savings bank, if established, will promote healthy and effective competition in the community in the delivery to the public of savings institution services.

(c) The minimum amount of pledges for deposit accounts or subscriptions for capital stock may be adjusted if the Commissioner of Banks determines that a greater requirement is necessary or that a smaller requirement will provide a sufficient capital base. The Commissioner of Banks' findings and recommendations to the Commission shall be based upon due consideration of (i) the population of the proposed trade area, (ii) the total deposits of the depository institutions operating in the proposed trade area, (iii) the economic conditions of and projections for the proposed trade area, (iv) the business experience and reputation of the proposed management, (v) the business experience and reputation of the proposed incorporators and directors, and (vi) the projected deposit growth, capitalization, and profitability of the proposed savings bank.
