3 COUNSELORS CERTIFICATION ACT.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 Section 1. Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new 6 Article to read:

7 "ARTICLE 25.
8 "FEE-BASED PRACTICING PASTORAL COUNSELORS.

9 "§ 90-350. Title.

10 This Article shall be known as the 'Fee-Based Practicing Pastoral Counselor
11 Certification Act.'

12 "§ 90-351. Policy and purpose.

13 Fee-based pastoral counseling and pastoral psychotherapy in this State are declared 14 to be professional practices which affect the public safety and welfare and necessitate 15 appropriate certification and control in the public interest.

16 It is the purpose of this Article to establish a certifying agency, a structure, and 17 procedures to insure that the public will be protected from unprofessional, improper, 18 unauthorized, and unqualified use of certain titles by persons who receive fees from the 19 practice of pastoral counseling and pastoral psychotherapy. This Article shall be 20 construed to carry out these policies and purposes.

21 "§ 90-352. Definitions.

1 (a) 'Accredited education institution' means a college, university, or theological 2 seminary chartered by the State and accredited by the appropriate regional association 3 of colleges and secondary schools or by the appropriate association of theological 4 schools and seminaries.

5 (b) 'Board' means the North Carolina State Board of Examiners of Fee-Based 6 Practicing Pastoral Counselors.

7 (c) 'Fee-based pastoral counseling associate' is an individual, certified under this 8 Article, who renders, or offers professional pastoral counseling services. However, the 9 fee-based pastoral counseling associate does not engage in counseling, psychotherapy, 10 diagnosis, amelioration of difficulties in living, and the resolution of interpersonal 11 conflict except under qualified supervision in accordance with the duly adopted rules 12 and regulations of the Board.

13 (d) 'Fee-based pastoral counselor' means a minister who receives fees from the 14 practice of pastoral counseling or pastoral psychotherapy at an advanced level which 15 integrates religious resources with insights from the behavioral sciences.

16 (e) 'Fee-based practice of pastoral counseling' means rendering or offering, for a 17 fee or other compensation, professional pastoral counseling services, whether within the 18 general public or within organizations, either public or private, to individuals, singly or 19 in groups; to couples, married or in other relationships; and to families.

20 (f) 'Fee-based professional pastoral counseling services' means the application of 21 pastoral care and pastoral counseling principles and procedures for a fee or other 22 compensation with the purposes of understanding, anticipating, or influencing the 23 behavior of individuals in order to assist in their attainment of maximum personal 24 growth; optimal work, marital, family, church, school, social, and interpersonal 25 relationships; and healthy personal adaptation. The application of pastoral care and 26 pastoral counseling and pastoral psychotherapy principles and procedures includes some 27 or all of the following, but is not restricted to: sustaining, healing, shepherding, 28 nurturing, guiding, and reconciling; interviewing, counseling, and psychotherapy; 29 diagnosis, prevention, and amelioration of difficulties in living; and the resolution of 30 interpersonal and social conflict. Teaching, writing, the giving of public speeches or 31 lectures, and research concerned with pastoral care and counseling principles, are not 32 included in professional pastoral counseling services within the meaning of this Article.

33 (g) 'Minister' means a person who has been called, elected or otherwise 34 authorized by a church, denomination or faith group through ordination, consecration or 35 equivalent means, to exercise, within and on behalf of the denomination or faith group, 36 specific religious leadership and service which furthers its purpose and mission and 37 which differs from the religious service of the laity of the denomination or faith group.

38 (h) 'Pastoral counseling' and 'pastoral psychotherapy' are herein used 39 interchangeably to mean a process in which a pastoral counselor utilizes insights and 40 principles derived from the disciplines of theology and the behavioral sciences to help 41 persons achieve wholeness and health.

42 (i) 'Pastoral psychotherapy' means the use of pastoral care and pastoral 43 counseling methods in a professional relationship to assist a person to modify feelings,

1 attitudes, and behavior which are intellectually, socially, emotionally, or spiritually 2 maladjustive, ineffectual or otherwise contributing to difficulties in living.

3 "§ 90-353. Exemptions to this Article.

4 (a) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as limiting the ministry, activities or 5 services of a minister called, elected, or otherwise authorized by a church, 6 denomination, or faith group to perform the ordinary duties or functions of the clergy.

7 (b) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as limiting the activities, services or 8 use of a title to designate a training status or a student, intern, or fellow preparing for the 9 practice of pastoral care and counseling under qualified supervision in an accredited 10 educational institution or service facility, provided that activities and services constitute 11 a part of the course of study.

12 (c) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to limit or restrict physicians, 13 surgeons, optometrists, psychiatrists, or psychologists licensed to practice under the 14 laws of North Carolina; or to restrict qualified members of other professional groups 15 who render counseling and other helping services including counselors, social workers, 16 and other similar professions; or to restrict qualified members of any other professional 17 groups in the practice of their respective professions, provided they do not claim to the 18 public by any title or description stating or implying that they are fee-based practicing 19 pastoral counselors or fee-based pastoral counseling associates, or are certified to 20 receive fees for the practice of pastoral counseling.

21 (d) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, if a person exempt from the 22 provisions of this Article becomes certified under this Article, he or she shall be 23 required to comply with all requirements imposed by Board rules and regulations or by 24 statute upon all other pastoral counselors certified under this Article.

24 opinion of the Board, are not lower than those required by this Article. The provisions 25 of this section apply only when such states grant similar privilege to residents of this

28 (b) The Board may grant a certificate as a practicing pastoral counselor to any 29 person meeting the requirements of G.S.90-357(a), or who has been certified as a

41 A certificate issued under this Article must be renewed annually on or before the 42 first day of January. Each application for renewal must be accompanied by a renewal 43 fee set by the Board of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). If a certificate is 44 not renewed on or before the first day of January of each year, an additional fee of not

1 more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) shall be charged for late renewal. The Board 2 may establish requirements for continuing education for pastoral counselors certified 3 and registered in this State as an additional condition for renewal.

4 "§ 90-360. Refusal, suspension, or revocation of certificates.

5 (a) A certificate applied for or issued under this Article may be refused, 6 suspended, revoked, or otherwise limited, as provided in subsection (e) below, by the 7 Board upon proof that the applicant or person to whom a certificate was issued:

8 (1) Has been convicted of a felony;

23 (7) Has been guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by the then-24 current code of ethics published by the American Association of 25 Pastoral Counselors; or

26 (8) Has violated any provision of this Article or of the duly adopted rules
27 and regulations of the Board.

28 (b) A certificate issued under this Article shall be automatically suspended by the 29 Board after failure to renew a certificate for a period of more than three months after the 30 annual renewal date.

31 (c) Except as otherwise provided herein, the procedure for revocation, 32 suspension, refusal, or other limitations of the license shall be in accordance with the 33 provisions of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. In any proceeding before the 34 Board, in any record of any hearing before the Board, in any complaint or notice of 35 charges against any certificatee or applicant for certification, and in any decision 36 rendered by the Board, the Board shall endeavor to withhold from public disclosure the 37 identity of any counsees or clients who have not consented to the public disclosure of 38 treatment by the certificatee or pastoral counselor. The Board may close a hearing to 39 the public and receive in executive session evidence concerning the treatment or 40 delivery of pastoral counseling services to a counselee or a client who has not consented 41 to public disclosure of such treatment or services as may be necessary for the protection 42 and rights of such counselee or client of the accused pastoral counselor and the full 43 presentation of relevant evidence. All records, papers, and documents containing 44 information collected and compiled by or on behalf of the Board, as a result of 1 investigations, inquiries, or interviews conducted in connection with certification or 2 disciplinary matters are not public records within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the 3 General Statutes; provided, however, that any notice or statement of charges against any 4 certificatee or applicant, or any notice to any certificatee or applicant of a hearing in any 5 proceeding, or any decision rendered in connection with a hearing in any proceeding, is 6 a public record within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, 7 notwithstanding that it may contain information collected and compiled as a result of 8 such investigation, inquiry, or hearing, except that identifying information concerning 9 the treatment or delivery of services to a counselee or client who has not consented to 10 the public disclosure of such treatment or services may be deleted. If any such record, 11 paper, or other document containing information collected and compiled by or on behalf 12 of the Board, as provided in this section, is received and admitted in evidence in any 13 hearing before the Board, it shall thereupon be a public record within the meaning of 14 Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, subject to any deletions of identifying information 15 concerning the treatment or delivery of pastoral counseling services to a counselee or 16 client who has not consented to public disclosure of such treatment or services.

17 (d) The Board may reinstate a suspended certificate upon payment by an 18 applicant of a special fee of twenty dollars ($20.00), and may require that the applicant 19 file a new application, or submit to reexamination for reinstatement, and pay such other 20 statutorily authorized fees as required by the Board.

21 (e) Upon proof that an applicant or certified pastoral counselor has engaged in 22 any of the prohibited actions specified in subsection (a) above, the Board may, in lieu of 23 refusal, suspension, or revocation, issue a formal reprimand or formally censure the 24 applicant or certified fee-based pastoral counselor, or may place the applicant or 25 certified fee-based pastoral counselor on probation with such appropriate conditions as 26 the Board may deem advisable, or may limit or circumscribe the professional pastoral 27 counseling services provided by the applicant or certified fee-based pastoral counselor 28 as the Board deems advisable. The Board may impose conditions of probation or 29 restrictions on continued practice at the conclusion of a period of suspension or as 30 requirements for the restoration of a revoked or suspended certificate. In lieu of or in 31 connection with any disciplinary proceedings or investigation, the Board may enter into 32 a consent order relating to the discipline, censure, proceeding costs, probation, or 33 limitations of a certified pastoral counselor or applicant for a certificate.

34 "§ 90-361. Prohibited acts.

35 (a) After ratification of this act, no person shall represent himself to be a certified 36 fee-based practicing pastoral counselor, or pastoral counseling associate, or engage in, 37 or offer to engage in, the practice of certified fee-based pastoral counseling without a 38 valid certification issued under this Article.

39 (b) After ratification of this act, no person who is not certified under this Article 40 shall represent himself to be a certified fee-based practicing pastoral counselor or 41 certified fee-based pastoral counseling associate; nor shall any person use these titles or 42 descriptions, or any of their derivatives, in such a manner which would imply that the 43 person is certified under this Article. The use by a person who is not certified under this 44 Article of such terms, whether in titles or description or otherwise, is not prohibited by

1 this Article except when used in connection with the practice of fee-based pastoral 2 counseling as defined in this Article; such use of these terms by a person not certified 3 under this Article shall not be construed as implying that a person is certified under this 4 Article or as practicing or offering to practice fee-based pastoral counseling.

5 "§ 90-362. Disposition of fees.

6 The fees derived from the operation of this Article shall be used by the Board in 7 carrying out its functions. The financial records of the Board shall be subject to an 8 annual audit.

9 "§ 90-363. Injunction for violations.

10 The Board may apply to the superior court for an injunction to prevent violations of 11 this Article or of any rules enacted pursuant thereto and the court is empowered to grant 12 such injunctions.

13 "§ 90-364. Duplicate and replacement certificates.

14 A certified fee-based pastoral counselor may request the Board to issue a duplicate 15 or replacement certificate for a fee set by the Board not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00).
16 Upon receipt of the request and a showing of good cause for the issuance of a duplicate 17 replacement certificate, and payment of the fee, the Board shall issue a duplicate or 18 replacement certificate."

19 Sec. 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 1991.
