A third or subsequent conviction for a violation of either subsection (a) or

1 (b) of this section within three years of the second or most recent conviction shall be 2 punishable as a Class I felony.

3 (d) Any person aggrieved under this section may seek injunctive relief in a court 4 of competent jurisdiction to prevent threatened or further violations of this section. Any 5 violation of an injunction obtained pursuant to this section constitutes criminal contempt
6 and shall be punishable by a term of imprisonment of not less than 30 days and no more 7 than 12 months.

8 (e) This section shall not prohibit any person from engaging in lawful speech or 12 (f) 'Health care facility' as used in this section means any hospital, clinic, or other
