A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO FURTHER REDUCE EMPLOYERS' UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE TAXES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 96-9(a)(5) reads as rewritten:

"(5) ~~Prior to January 1, 1978, the term 'wages' shall not include for the purposes of this section any remuneration in excess of four thousand two hundred dollars ($4,200) paid to any individual in a single calendar year by an employer with respect to employment.~~

a. For purposes of this section, the term 'wages' shall not include any remuneration paid to any employee in this State in excess of this State's tax base paid to an individual by a single employer if the employer of that individual made contributions in another state or states upon the wages paid to ~~such~~ that individual during the applicable calendar year, because of work performed in another state or states.

b. Any successor employer as defined in G.S. 96-8(5)b for the purposes of this section shall pay no contributions on that part of

1 remuneration earned by any individual in the employ of the 2 successor employer which, when added to the remuneration
3 previously paid by the predecessor ~~employer-employer~~, exceeded
4 this State's tax base in a single calendar year, ~~provided if the~~
5 following conditions are met: (i) the individual was an employee
6 of the predecessor and was taken over as an employee by the 7 successor as a part of the organization acquired and, provided
8 further, that and (ii) the predecessor employer has paid
9 contributions on the wages paid to such the individual while in 10 his the predecessor's employ during the year of acquisition and 11 the account of the predecessor is transferred to the successor in 12 accordance with G.S. 96-9(c)(4)a.

13 ~~Beginning January 1, 1978, and thereafter, the taxable wage base of~~ 14 ~~any employee whose wages are subject to taxation, whether totally or~~ 15 ~~partially, by the State of North Carolina under any provision of this~~
16 ~~Chapter shall be the federally required tax base.~~

17 c. On the computation date (August 1) in 1983 and each
18 computation date thereafter, the Commission shall compute the 19 average yearly insured wage by multiplying the average weekly
20 insured wage (obtained in accordance with G.S. 96-8(22)) by 52.
21 During the each calendar year following the computation date,
22 date until January 1, 1995, the taxable wage base shall be the 23 greater of the federally required tax base or the product resulting 24 from multiplying the average yearly insured wage by sixty
25 percent (60%), rounded to the nearest multiple of one hundred
26 dollars ($100.00). Beginning January 1, 1995, during each
27 calendar year following the computation date, the taxable wage
28 base shall be the greater of the federally required tax base or the 29 product resulting from multiplying the average yearly insured
30 wage by fifty percent (50%), rounded to the nearest multiple of 31 one hundred dollars ($100.00)."

32 Sec. 2. G.S. 96-9(b)(3) is amended by adding a new subdivision d3. to read:

33 "d3. The standard contribution rate set by subdivision (b)(1) of this section
34 applies to an employer unless the employer's account has a credit
35 balance. Beginning January 1, 1995, the contribution rate of an 36 employer whose account has a credit balance is determined in 37 accordance with the rate set in the following Experience Rating Formula
38 table for the applicable rate schedule. The contribution rate of an 39 employer whose contribution rate is determined by this Experience
40 Rating Formula table shall be reduced by fifty percent (50%) for any 41 year in which the balance in the Unemployment Insurance Fund equals
42 or exceeds eight hundred million dollars ($800,000,000) on the 43 computation date.

Sec. 3. Effective January 1, 1998, G.S. 96-9(b)(3)d2. is repealed.

Sec. 4. Effective January 1, 2000, G.S. 96-9(a)(5)c., as amended by Section 1 of this act, reads as rewritten:

"c. On the computation date ~~(August 1) in 1983 and each computation date thereafter, each year,~~ the Commission shall compute the average yearly insured wage by multiplying the average weekly insured wage (obtained in accordance with G.S. 96-8(22)) by 52. During each calendar year following the computation date until January 1, 1995, the taxable wage base shall be the greater of the federally required tax base or the

1 ~~product resulting from multiplying the average yearly insured~~
2 ~~wage by sixty percent (60%), rounded to the nearest multiple of~~
3 ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00). Beginning January 1, 1995,~~
4 ~~during each calendar year following the computation date, the~~
5 taxable wage base shall be the greater of the federally required
6 tax base or the product resulting from multiplying the average
7 yearly insured wage by fifty percent (50%), rounded to the 8 nearest multiple of one hundred dollars ($100.00)."

9 Sec. 5. Section 3 of this act becomes effective January 1, 1998. Section 4 of 10 this act becomes effective January 1, 2000. The remainder of this act is effective upon 11 ratification and applies to quarters beginning on or after January 1, 1995.
