10 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

11 Section 1. G.S. 28A-25-1(a) reads as rewritten:

12 "(a) When a decedent dies intestate leaving personal property, less liens and 13 encumbrances thereon, not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in value, at any time 14 after 30 days from the date of death, any person indebted to the decedent or having 15 possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, 16 stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the

1 indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt,
2 obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the public administrator 3 appointed pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-1, or an heir or creditor of the decedent, not 4 disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, upon being presented a certified copy of an affidavit 5 filed in accordance with subsection (b) and made by or on behalf of the heir or creditor or 6 the public administrator stating:

- 7 (1) The name and address of the affiant and the fact that he or she is the 8 public administrator or an heir or creditor of the decedent;
- 9 (2) The name of the decedent and his residence at time of death;
- 10 (3) The date and place of death of the decedent;
- 11 (4) That 30 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;
- 12 (5) That the value of all the personal property owned by the estate of the 13 decedent, less liens and encumbrances thereon, does not exceed ten 14 thousand dollars ($10,000);
- 15 (6) That no application or petition for appointment of a personal 16 representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction;
- 17 (7) The names and addresses of those persons who are entitled, under the 18 provisions of the Intestate Succession Act, to the personal property of 19 the decedent and their relationship, if any, to the decedent; and
- 20 (8) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned by 21 the decedent at the time of his death.

22 In those cases in which the affiant is the surviving spouse and sole heir of the 23 decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, the property described in this subsection 24 that may be collected pursuant to this section may exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) 25 in value but shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value. In such cases, 26 the affidavit shall state: (i) the name and address of the affiant and the fact that he or she 27 is the surviving spouse and is entitled, under the provisions of the Intestate Succession 28 Act, to all of the property of the decedent; (ii) that the value of all of the personal 29 property owned by the estate of the decedent, less liens and encumbrances thereon, does 30 not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); and (iii) the information required under 31 subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (6), and (8) of this subsection."

32 Sec. 2. G.S. 28A-25-1.1(a) reads as rewritten:

33 "(a) When a decedent dies testate leaving personal property, less liens and 34 encumbrances thereon, not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in value, at any time 35 after 30 days from the date of death, any person indebted to the decedent or having 36 possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, 37 stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the 38 indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt,
39 obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the public administrator 40 appointed pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-1, a person named or designated as executor in the 41 will, devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, upon 42 being presented a certified copy of an affidavit filed in accordance with subsection (b)

1 and made by or on behalf of the heir, the person named or designated as executor in the 2 will of the decedent, the creditor, the public administrator, or the devisee, stating:

- 3 (1) The name and address of the affiant and the fact that he is the public 4 administrator, a person named or designated as executor in the will, 5 devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent;
- 6 (2) The name of the decedent and his residence at time of death;
- 7 (3) The date and place of death of the decedent;
- 8 (4) That 30 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;
- 9 (5) That the decedent died testate leaving personal property, less liens and 10 encumbrances thereon, not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in 11 value;
- 12 (6) That the decedent's will has been admitted to probate in the court of the 13 proper county and a duly certified copy of the will has been recorded in 14 each county in which is located any real property owned by the 15 decedent at the time of his death;
- 16 (7) That a certified copy of the decedent's will is attached to the affidavit;
- 17 (8) That no application or petition for appointment of a personal 18 representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction;
- 19 (9) The names and addresses of those persons who are entitled, under the 20 provisions of the will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, 21 to the property of the decedent; and their relationship, if any, to the 22 decedent; and
- 23 (10) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned by 24 the decedent at the time of his death.

25 In those cases in which the affiant is the surviving spouse, is entitled to all of the 26 property of the decedent, and is not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, the property 27 described in this subsection that may be collected pursuant to this section may exceed ten 28 thousand dollars ($10,000) in value but shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars 29 ($20,000) in value. In such cases, the affidavit shall state: (i) the name and address of 30 the affiant and the fact that he or she is the surviving spouse and is entitled, under the 31 provisions of the decedent's will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, to all of 32 the property of the decedent; (ii) that the decedent died testate leaving personal property, 33 less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); 34 and (iii) the information required under subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (6), (7), (8), and (10) of 35 this subsection."

36 Sec. 3. G.S. 29-14(b) reads as rewritten:

37 "(b) Personal Property. – The share of the surviving spouse in the personal property 38 is:

- 39 (1) If the intestate is survived by only one child or by any lineal descendant 40 of only one deceased child, and the net personal property does not 41 exceed ~~fifteen-thirty~~ thousand dollars ~~($15,000)-($30,000)~~ in value, all of 42 the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds ~~fifteen-thirty~~ 43 thousand dollars ~~($15,000)-($30,000)~~ in value, the sum of ~~fifteen-thirty~~

- 1 thousand dollars ~~($15,000)-($30,000)~~ plus one half of the balance of the 2 personal property;
- 3 (2) If the intestate is survived by two or more children, or by one child and 4 any lineal descendant of one or more deceased children, or by lineal 5 descendants of two or more deceased children, and the net personal 6 property does not exceed ~~fifteen-thirty~~ thousand dollars ~~($15,000)~~ 7 ~~($30,000)~~ in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal 8 property exceeds ~~fifteen-thirty~~ thousand dollars ~~($15,000)-($30,000)~~ in 9 value, the sum of ~~fifteen-thirty~~ thousand dollars ~~($15,000)-($30,000)~~ plus 10 one third of the balance of the personal property;
- 11 (3) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal 12 descendant of a deceased child or children, but is survived by one or 13 more parents, and the net personal property does not exceed ~~twenty-five~~ 14 fifty thousand dollars ~~($25,000)-($50,000)~~ in value, all of the personal 15 property; if the net personal property exceeds ~~twenty-five-fifty~~ thousand 16 dollars ~~($25,000)-($50,000)~~ in value, the sum of ~~twenty-five-fifty~~ 17 thousand dollars ~~($25,000)-($50,000)~~ plus one half of the balance of the 18 personal property;
- 19 (4) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal 20 descendant of a deceased child or children, or by a parent, all of the 21 personal property."

22 Sec. 4. G.S. 30-15 reads as rewritten:

23 "§ 30-15. When spouse entitled to allowance.

24 Every surviving spouse of an intestate or of a testator, whether or not he has dissented 25 from the will, shall, unless he has forfeited his right thereto as provided by law, be 26 entitled, out of the personal property of the deceased spouse, to an allowance of the value 27 of ~~five-ten~~ thousand dollars ~~($5,000)-($10,000)~~ for his support for one year after the death 28 of the deceased spouse. Such allowance shall be exempt from any lien, by judgment or 29 execution, acquired against the property of the deceased spouse, and shall, in cases of 30 testacy, be charged against the share of the surviving spouse."

31 Sec. 5. G.S. 30-17 reads as rewritten:

32 "§ 30-17. When children entitled to an allowance.

33 Whenever any parent dies leaving any child under the age of 18 years, including an 34 adopted child or a child with whom the widow may be pregnant at the death of her 35 husband, or a child who is less than 22 years of age and is a full-time student in any 36 educational institution, or a child under 21 years of age who has been declared mentally 37 incompetent, or a child under 21 years of age who is totally disabled, or any other person 38 under the age of 18 years residing with the deceased parent at the time of death to whom 39 the deceased parent or the surviving parent stood in loco parentis, every such child shall 40 be entitled, besides its share of the estate of such deceased parent, to an allowance of ~~one~~ 41 two thousand dollars ~~($1,000)-($2,000)~~ for its support for the year next ensuing the death 42 of such parent, less, however, the value of any articles consumed by said child since the 43 death of said parent. Such allowance shall be exempt from any lien by judgment or

1 execution against the property of such parent. The personal representative of the deceased 2 parent, within one year after the parent's death, shall assign to every such child the 3 allowance herein provided for; but if there is no personal representative or if he fails or 4 refuses to act within 10 days after written request by a guardian or next friend on behalf 5 of such child, the allowance may be assigned by a magistrate, upon application of said 6 guardian or next friend.

7 If the child resides with the widow of the deceased parent at the time such allowance 8 is paid, the allowance shall be paid to said widow for the benefit of said child. If the 9 child resides with its surviving parent who is other than the widow of the deceased 10 parent, such allowance shall be paid to said surviving parent for the use and benefit of 11 such child, regardless of whether the deceased died testate or intestate or whether the 12 widow dissented from the will. Provided, however, the allowance shall not be available 13 to an illegitimate child of a deceased father, unless such deceased father shall have 14 recognized the paternity of such illegitimate child by deed, will or other paper-writing. If 15 the child does not reside with a parent when the allowance is paid, it shall be paid to its 16 general guardian, if any, and if none, to the clerk of the superior court who shall receive 17 and disburse same for the benefit of such child."

18 Sec. 6. G.S. 30-26 reads as rewritten:

19 "§ 30-26. When above allowance is in full.

20 If the estate of a deceased be insolvent, or if his personal estate does not exceed five 21 ten thousand dollars ~~($5,000)~~, ~~($10,000)~~, the allowances for the year's support of the 22 surviving spouse and the children shall not, in any case, exceed the value prescribed in 23 G.S. 30-15 and 30-17; and the allowances made to them as above prescribed shall 24 preclude them from any further allowances."

25 Sec. 7. G.S. 30-29 reads as rewritten:

26 "§ 30-29. What complaint must show.

27 In the complaint the plaintiff shall set forth, besides the facts entitling plaintiff to a 28 year's support and the value of the support claimed, the further facts that the estate of the 29 decedent is not insolvent, and that the personal estate of which he died possessed 30 exceeded ~~five~~ ten thousand dollars ~~($5,000)~~, ~~($10,000)~~, and also whether or not an 31 allowance has been made to plaintiff and the nature and value thereof."

32 Sec. 8. G.S. 28A-19-6 reads as rewritten:

33 "§ 28A-19-6. Order of payment of claims.

34 After payment of costs and expenses of administration, the claims against the estate of 35 a decedent must be paid in the following order:

36 First class. Claims which by law have a specific lien on property to an amount not 37 exceeding the value of such property.

38 Second class. Funeral expenses to the extent of two thousand five hundred dollars 39 ~~($2,000)~~, ~~($2,500)~~. This limitation shall not include cemetery lot or gravestone. The 40 preferential limitation herein granted shall be construed to be only a limit with respect to 41 preference of payment and shall not be construed to be a limitation on reasonable funeral 42 expenses which may be incurred; nor shall the preferential limitation of payment in the 43 amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ~~($2,000)~~, ~~($2,500)~~ be diminished by any

1 Veterans Administration, social security or other federal governmental benefits awarded 2 to the estate of the decedent or to his or her beneficiaries.

3 Third class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the 4 United States.

5 Fourth class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the 6 State of North Carolina and its subdivisions.

7 Fifth class. Judgments of any court of competent jurisdiction within the State, 8 docketed and in force, to the extent to which they are a lien on the property of the 9 decedent at his death.

10 Sixth class. Wages due to any employee employed by the decedent, which claim for 11 wages shall not extend to a period of more than 12 months next preceding the death; or if 12 such employee was employed for the year current at the decease, then from the time of 13 such employment; for medical services within the 12 months preceding the decease; for 14 drugs and all other medical supplies necessary for the treatment of such decedent during 15 the last illness of such decedent, said period of last illness not to exceed 12 months.

16 Seventh class. All other claims."

17 Sec. 9. This act becomes effective October 1, 1995, and applies to estates of 18 persons dying on or after that date.
