A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1
2 AN ACT TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA TO PROVIDE 3 FOR GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION OF JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME 4 COURT AND JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, LEGISLATIVE 5 CONFIRMATION, AND RETENTION BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE.

6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 Section 1. Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as 8 rewritten:

9 "~~Sec. 16. Terms of office and election of Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the~~ 10 ~~Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court.~~ Selection and tenure of Justices of 11 the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals; election of Judges of the Superior 12 Court.

13 ~~Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and regular (1) Judges~~ 14 ~~of the Superior court shall be elected by the qualified voters and shall hold office for~~ 15 ~~terms of eight years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Justices of the~~ 16 ~~Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals shall be elected by the qualified~~ 17 ~~voters of the State.~~ Regular Judges of the Superior Court ~~may~~ shall be elected by the 1 ~~qualified voters of the State or by the voters of their respective districts, as the General~~

2 ~~Assembly may prescribe districts.~~

3 (2) General principles. Justices and judges of the Appellate Division should be 4 selected for and continue to hold office solely upon the basis of personal and professional 5 fitness to administer right and justice wisely, according to law, and without favor, denial, 6 or delay, to all persons who come into the courts. While their continuation in office 7 should be periodically subject to approval by the people, both their initial selection and 8 continuation in office should be free, so far as may be, from the influences and 9 necessities of partisan political activity.

10 (3) Nomination, confirmation, appointment retention election, and terms of 11 justices and judges. On and after January 1, 2001, when a vacancy occurs in the office of 12 Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division, the Governor shall 13 nominate a person to fill the vacancy. Prior to appointment, such nominations by the 14 Governor shall be subject to confirmation of the General Assembly by three-fifths of the 15 members of each house present and voting prior to appointment. For the purposes of this 16 section, creation of a new judgeship within the Appellate Division creates a vacancy.

17 Each house of the General Assembly shall vote on confirmation within 60 calendar 18 days of the date of nomination, except that no day shall be included within that 19 calculation if it is:

20 (a) Between sine die adjournment of one regular session and convening of 21 the next regular session; or

22 (b) During any period when the General Assembly has adjourned a regular 23 session for more than 30 days jointly as provided under Section 20 of 24 Article II of this Constitution.

25 If a nomination is made during either of the periods listed in subdivision (a) or (b) 26 of this subsection, the Governor may convene the General Assembly in extra session for 27 the purpose of considering confirmation of the nomination. No action of that extra 28 session shall be valid after the second calendar day of that session, and that extra session 29 may not consider any matters other than rules for the extra session, confirmation of the 30 nomination, and adjournment sine die. The nomination may not be confirmed in any 31 extra session other than one called under this subsection.

32 The term of office by appointment as Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 33 Appellate Division extends through June 30 after the next statewide election for members 34 of the General Assembly that is held more than 18 months after the nomination is 35 confirmed. At that election, a person holding by appointment the office of Chief Justice, 36 Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division who desires to continue in office 37 shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the 38 issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention. A Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of 39 the Appellate Division then approved for retention serves a regular term.

40 The regular term of office of the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of the 41 Appellate Division is eight years and expires on June 30.

42 At the last statewide election for members of the General Assembly held before the 43 expiration of a regular term of office, a Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 1 Appellate Division who desires to continue in office shall be subject to approval by 2 nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's 3 retention.

4 If the voters fail to approve the retention in office of a Chief Justice, Associate 5 Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division serving an appointed or regular term, the 6 office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office, and it shall be filled by 7 nomination, confirmation, and appointment as prescribed in this section. In such case, 8 the Governor may only nominate a person of the same political affiliation as the justice or 9 judge who has not been retained in office. For the purpose of this section, the political 10 affiliation of a nominee for justice or judge is determined as of 24 months preceding the 11 date of the vacancy for which the nomination is made.

12 Voting in a retention election on the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of 13 the Appellate Division shall be the qualified voters of the whole State.

14 (4) Transition provisions. The term of office of a person who has been elected 15 before January 1, 2001, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 16 Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2001, and who is in 17 office on January 1, 2001, is extended through June 30 of the year following the eighth 18 year after the date any such justice or judge was last elected to the office. If the person so 19 elected continues to serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for 20 retention in the office for a succeeding regular term as provided in this section. If the 21 person continues to serve for the remainder of the term but does not stand for retention 22 election, a vacancy is created in the office upon expiration of the term, and this vacancy 23 shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and appointment as provided in this section.

24 The term of office of a person who has been appointed before January 1, 2001, to the 25 office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division for a term 26 which extends beyond January 1, 2001, and who is in office on January 1, 2001, shall end 27 on June 30, 2003. If the person so appointed continues to serve for the remainder of the 28 term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a regular term as provided by 29 this section at the statewide election for members of the General Assembly held in 2002.

30 Upon the death, resignation, removal, or retirement of any incumbent justice or judge 31 on or after January 1, 2001, and before the expiration of his term of office, the resulting 32 vacancy shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and appointment as provided in this 33 section.

34 Vacancies in judicial offices in the Appellate Division occurring before January 1, 35 2001, and not filled by that date, shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and 36 appointment as provided in this section.

37 From the date any incumbent described in this subsection is continued in office by 38 retention vote for a term next succeeding the term in progress on January 1, 2001, or is 39 succeeded in office by another person, the office is held subject to the provisions of this 40 section.

41 (5) The General Assembly may implement this section by general law."

42 Section 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to 43 the qualified voters of the State at the general election in November 2000, which election

1 shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting 2 systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes.

3 "[] FOR [] AGAINST

4 Constitutional amendment to replace the present practice of selecting justices 5 and judges of the Appellate Division by gubernatorial appointment, followed by partisan 6 elections, with a method by which justices and judges of the Appellate Division will be 7 nominated by the Governor, confirmed by the General Assembly, and then serve for 8 limited terms after which the question of the justice's or judge's retention in office is 9 regularly submitted for approval or disapproval by nonpartisan vote of the people at 10 general elections, and to provide for election of superior court judges in their districts."

11 Section 3. If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the 12 amendment set out in Section 1 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the 13 amendment to the Secretary of State. The amendment becomes effective upon this 14 certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendment so certified among the 15 permanent records of that office.

16 Section 3.1. Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new 17 Article to read:

33 nominee's management of the courts over which he has presided, the nominee's work 34 habits, the nominee's health, and the nominee's judicial demeanor. The nominee or judge 35 shall be given an opportunity to present to the committee any information that the 36 nominee determines to be appropriate.

37 (b) The committee shall be allowed to inspect the files of the Judicial Standards 38 Commission by request of the chair of the committee. Notwithstanding the provisions of 39 G.S. 7A-377, the files of the Judicial Standards Commission shall be made available to 3 confirmed by the General Assembly shall be appointed by the Governor and shall procure 4 from the Governor a commission attesting that fact, which the Governor shall issue upon 5 receipt of a certification by the Secretary of State of the joint resolution of confirmation.

6 When a judge is retained in office by vote of the people, the Governor shall issue a 7 commission attesting that fact, which the Governor shall issue upon receipt of a 8 certification by the Secretary of State of the results of the election.

9 "§ 7A-4.4. No elections in 2001.

10 No partisan election as previously provided by law for Chief Justice or Associate 11 Justice of the Supreme Court, or Judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be held in 2001 or 12 thereafter.

13 "§ 7A-4.5. Retention elections.

14 (a) As provided by Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution of North Carolina, 15 a Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court or Judge of the Court of 16 Appeals desiring to continue in office shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, 17 by a majority of votes cast on the issue of the justice's or judge's retention.

18 (b) A person subject to subsection (a) of this section shall indicate the desire to 19 continue in office by filing a notice to that effect with the State Board of Elections no 20 later than 12:00 noon on the first business day of July in the year of the election. The 21 notice shall be on a form approved by the State Board of Elections. Notice can be 22 withdrawn at any time prior to the deadline for filing notice under this subsection.

23 (c) Retention elections shall be conducted and canvassed in accordance with rules 24 of the State Board of Elections in the same general manner as general elections under 25 Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, except that the retention election is nonpartisan. The 26 form of the ballot shall be determined by the State Board of Elections.

27 (d) Retention elections shall be placed at the top of the ballot above all other 28 elections or matters for decision, whether partisan, nonpartisan, or otherwise.

29 (e) If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is removed 30 from office prior to the time that the ballots are printed, the retention election is 31 cancelled. If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is 32 removed from office after the ballots are printed, the State Board of Elections may cancel 33 the election if it determines that the ballots can be reprinted without significant expense.
34 If the ballots cannot be reprinted, then the results of the election shall be ineffective."

35 Section 3.2 G.S. 163-140(a) reads as rewritten:

9 whom he may desire to vote.

10 Unless prohibited by this section, the board of elections, State or county, charged by 11 law with printing ballots may, in its discretion, combine any two or more official ballots.
12 Whenever two or more ballots are combined, the voting instructions for the State ballot 13 set out in subsection (b)(4) of this section shall be used, except that if the two ballots 14 being combined do not contain a multi-seat race, then the second sentence of instruction 15 b. shall not appear on the ballot.

16 Contests in the general election for seats in the State House of Representatives and 17 State Senate shall be on ballots that are separate from ballots containing non-legislative 20 seat contest and the other a multi-seat contest.

21 ~~All candidates for the Appellate Division shall appear on the same ballot."~~
