SENATE BILL 55 Finance Committee Substitute Adopted 6/2/99

Short Title: Rev	venue Laws Technical Changes. (Public)
Sponsors: Referred to:
	February 9, 1999
	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO	CONFORM THE TAX BASE OF THE REGIONAL TRANSIT
AUTHORIT	Y VEHICLE RENTAL TAX TO THE TAX BASE OF THE
ALTERNAT	TE HIGHWAY USE TAX ON SHORT-TERM VEHICLE RENTALS.
AND TO	MAKE TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING CHANGES TO THE
REVENUE	LAWS AND RELATED STATUTES.
The General As	sembly of North Carolina enacts:
PAR	Γ I. MODIFICATION OF THE VEHICLE RENTAL TAX.
	on 1. G.S. 105-550 reads as rewritten:
"§ 105-550. De
	ons in G.S. 105-164.3 and the following definitions apply in this Article:
(1)	Authority. – A regional public transportation authority or a regional transportation authority created pursuant to Article 26 or Article 27 of
(2)	Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.
(2)	Long-term lease or rental. – Defined in G.S. 105-187.1.
$\frac{(2a)}{(2)}$	Motor vehicle. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.
(3) (4)	Motorcycle. – Defined in G.S. 20-4.01. Repealed by Session Laws 1998-98, s. 33.
(+)	Repealed by bession Laws 1770-70, s. 33.

- (5) Public transportation system. Any combination of real and personal property established for purposes of public transportation. The systems may include one or more of the following: structures, improvements, buildings, equipment, vehicle parking or passenger transfer facilities, railroads and railroad rights-of-way, rights-of-way, bus services, shared-ride services, high-occupancy vehicle facilities, carpool and vanpool programs, voucher programs, telecommunications and information systems, integrated fare systems, bus lanes, and busways. The term does not include, however, streets, roads, or highways except to the extent they are dedicated to public transportation vehicles or to the extent they are necessary for access to vehicle parking or passenger transfer facilities.
- (6) Short-term lease or rental. A lease or rental that is not a long-term lease or rental.
- (7) U-drive-it passenger vehicle. Defined in G.S. 20-4.01." Section 2. G.S. 105-551(a) reads as rewritten:
- "(a) Tax. The board of trustees of an Authority may levy a privilege tax on a retailer who is engaged in the business of leasing or renting U-drive it passenger vehicles or motorcycles motor vehicles based on the gross receipts derived by the retailer from the short-term lease or rental of these vehicles. The tax rate must be a percentage and may not exceed five percent (5%). A tax levied under this section applies to short-term leases or rentals made by a retailer whose place of business or inventory is located within the territorial jurisdiction of the Authority. This tax is in addition to all other taxes."

Section 3. G.S. 105-552(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Collection. — A tax levied by an Authority under this Article shall be collected by the Authority but shall otherwise be administered in the same manner as the optional gross receipts tax levied by G.S. 105-187.5. Like the optional gross receipts tax, a tax levied under this Article is to be added to the lease or rental price of a U-drive it passenger vehicle or motorcycle motor vehicle and thereby be paid by the person to whom it is leased or rented.

A tax levied under this Article applies regardless of whether the retailer who leases or rents the U-drive-it passenger vehicle or motorcycle-motor vehicle has elected to pay the optional gross receipts tax on the lease or rental receipts from the vehicle. A tax levied under this Article must be paid to the Authority that levied the tax by the date an optional gross receipts tax would be payable to the Secretary of Revenue under G.S. 105-187.5 if the retailer who leases or rents the U-drive it passenger vehicle or motorcycle motor vehicle had elected to pay the optional gross receipts tax."

Section 4. This Part becomes effective July 1, 1999, and applies to contracts entered into on or after that date.

PART II. REVENUE LAWS TECHNICAL CHANGES.

Section 5. Section 7 of S.L. 1998-158 reads as rewritten:

"Section 7. Section 5 of this act is effective for taxable years beginning on or after October 1, 1998. The remainder of this This act is effective when it becomes law."

Section 6. G.S. 1C-1601(a)(9) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Exempt property. – Each individual, resident of this State, who is a debtor is entitled to retain free of the enforcement of the claims of his creditors:

(9) Individual retirement accounts as described in Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, individual retirement annuities as described in Section 408(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and accounts established as part of a trust described in Section 408(c) of plans as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and any plan treated in the same manner as an individual retirement plan under the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of this subdivision, 'Internal Revenue Code' means Code as defined in G.S. 105-228.90."

Section 7.(a) G.S. 10A-4(b) reads as rewritten:

- "(b) A person qualified for a notarial commission shall meet all of the following requirements:
 - (1) Be at least 18 years of age.
 - (2) Reside or work in this State.
 - (3) Satisfactorily complete a course of study that is approved by the Secretary and consists of not less than three hours nor more than six hours of classroom instruction provided by community colleges throughout the State, unless the person is a licensed member of the Bar of this State.
 - (4) Purchase and keep as a reference a manual approved by the Secretary that describes the duties, authority, and ethical responsibilities of notaries public.
 - (5) Submit an application containing no significant misstatement or omission of fact. The application form shall be provided by the Secretary and be available at the register of deeds office in each county. Every application shall bear the signature of the applicant written with pen and ink, and the signature shall be acknowledged by the applicant before a person authorized to administer oaths. The applicant shall also obtain the recommendation of one publicly elected official in North Carolina whose recommendation shall be contained on the application.
 - (6) Pay a nonrefundable fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). thirty dollars ($30.00)."

Section 7.(b) G.S. 10A-7(a) reads as rewritten:

- "(a) The course of study required by G.S. 10A-4(b) shall be taught by an instructor certified in accordance with rules adopted by the Secretary. An instructor must meet the following requirements to be certified to teach a course of study for notaries public:

Section 7.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 1999.

Section 8. G.S. 28A-21-2(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Unless the time for filing the final account has been extended by the clerk of superior court, the personal representative or collector must file his-the final account for settlement within one year of his qualification-after qualifying or within six months after his receipt of the State receiving a State estate or inheritance tax release, whichever is later. If no estate or inheritance tax return was required to be filed for the estate under G.S. 105-23 because the estate met the requirements of subsection (b) of that section, estate, the personal representative or collector shall so certify in the final account filed with the clerk of superior court. Such certification shall list the amount and value of all of the decedent's property, and with respect to real estate, its particular location within or outside the State, including any property transferred by the decedent over which he—the decedent had retained any interest as described in G.S. 105-2(a)(3), interest, or any property transferred within three years prior to the date of the decedent's death, and after being filed and accepted by the clerk of the superior court shall be prima facie evidence that such property is free of any State inheritance or State estate tax liability. The personal representative or collector shall produce vouchers for all payments or verified proof for all payments in lieu of vouchers. With the approval of the clerk of superior court, such account may be filed voluntarily at any time. In all cases, the accounting shall be reviewed, audited and recorded by the clerk of superior court in the manner prescribed in G.S. 28A-21-1."

Section 9. G.S. 29-13 reads as rewritten:

"§ 29-13. Descent and distribution upon intestacy.

All the estate of a person dying intestate shall descend and be distributed, subject to the payment of costs of administration and other lawful claims against the estate, and subject to the payment by the recipient-of State inheritance or estate taxes, as provided in this Chapter."

Section 10. G.S. 29-20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 29-20. Descent and distribution upon intestacy of illegitimate children.

All the estate of a person dying illegitimate and intestate shall descend and be distributed, subject to the payment of costs of administration and other lawful claims against his the estate, and subject to the payment by the recipient of State inheritance or estate taxes, as provided in this Article."

Section 11. G.S. 36A-100(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A person having the right to designate the beneficiary under a life insurance policy, employee benefit plan or group life insurance policy described in subsection (a) or (b) of this section may designate as such beneficiary a trustee named or to be named in his will whether or not the will is in existence at the time of the designation. The proceeds received by the trustee shall be held and disposed of as part of the trust estate under the terms of the will as they exist at the death of the testator. If no qualified trustee makes claim to the proceeds within six months after the death of the decedent or if within that period it is established that no trustee can qualify to receive the proceeds, payments shall be made to the personal representative of the estate of the person making the designation unless it is otherwise provided by an alternative designation or by the policy or plan. The proceeds received by the trustee shall not be subject to claims against the estate of the decedent or to estate or inheritance taxes to any greater extent than if the proceeds were payable directly to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the trust. The proceeds may be commingled with any other assets which may properly become part of such trust, but the proceeds shall not become part of the decedent's estate for purposes of trust administration unless the will of the decedent expressly so provides."

Section 12. G.S. 36A-125(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If at any time the trustee of a noncharitable irrevocable trust determines in good faith that the value of the assets held in trust is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less, and the continuance of the trust pursuant to its terms in relation to the cost of its administration would defeat or substantially impair the accomplishment of the purposes of the trust, the trustee, without approval of the court, may, but is not required to, terminate the trust and distribute the trust property, including principal and undistributed income, to the beneficiaries in a manner which conforms as nearly as possible to the intention of the settlor as determined by the trustee from the trust agreement; provided, however, that the trust property, including principal and undistributed income, shall be distributed to the income beneficiary of the trust if the trust otherwise qualifies for the marital deduction for federal estate tax or North Carolina estate or inheritance tax purposes, or is a Qualified Subchapter S Trust as defined in the Internal Revenue Code. The trustee may enter into an agreement or make such other provisions that the trustee deems necessary or appropriate to protect the interests of the beneficiaries and to carry out the intent and purpose of the trust."

Section 13. G.S. 41-2.1(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) This section does not repeal or modify any provisions of the law relating to estate or inheritance taxes."

Section 14. G.S. 41-2.2(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) This section does not repeal or modify any provisions of the law relating to estate or inheritance taxes."

Section 15. G.S. 41-2.5(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of Article 1 of Chapter 105 relating to the administration of the inheritance tax laws or any other provision of the law relating to This section does not repeal or modify any provisions of the law relating to estate or inheritance taxes."

Section 16. G.S. 93B-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 93B-15. Payment of license fees by members of the armed forces.

An individual who is serving in the armed forces of the United States and to whom G.S. 105-249.2 grants an extension of time to file a tax return is granted an extension of time to pay any license fee charged by an occupational licensing board or as a condition of retaining a license granted by the board. The extension is for the same period that would apply if the license fee were a tax."

Section 17. G.S. 105-32.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-32.8. Federal determination that changes the amount of tax payable to the State.

If the federal government corrects or otherwise determines the amount of the maximum state death tax credit allowed an estate under section 6166 of the Code, the personal representative must, within two years after being notified of the correction or final determination by the federal government, file an estate tax return with the Secretary reflecting the correct amount of tax payable under this Article. If the federal government corrects or otherwise determines the amount of the maximum state generation-skipping transfer tax credit allowed under section 2604 of the Code, the person who made the transfer must, within two years after being notified of the correction or final determination by the federal government, file a tax return with the Secretary reflecting the correct amount of tax payable under this Article.

The Secretary must assess and collect any additional tax due as provided in Article 9 of this Chapter and must refund any overpayment of tax as provided in Article 9 of this Chapter. A person who fails to report a federal correction or determination in accordance with this section is subject to the penalties in G.S. 105-236 and forfeits the right to any refund due by reason of the determination."

Section 18.(a) G.S. 105-37.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-37.1. (Effective July 1, 1999) Amusements — Forms of amusement not otherwise taxed.

(a) Every person engaged in the business of giving, offering, or managing any form of entertainment or amusement not otherwise taxed under this Article, for which an admission is charged, shall pay a tax upon the gross receipts of the business at the rate of three percent (3%). Reports shall be made to the Secretary within the first 10 days of each month covering all the gross receipts for the previous month, and the tax shall be paid monthly at the time the reports are made.

Every person giving, offering, or managing any dance or athletic contest of any kind, except high school and elementary school athletic contests, for which an admission fee in excess of fifty cents (50¢) is charged, shall pay a tax upon the gross receipts derived from admission charges at the rate of three percent (3%). The tax upon gross receipts shall be levied and collected as prescribed by the Secretary.

- (b) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities may levy a license tax not in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
 - (c), (d) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-95, s. 4, effective July 1, 1999.

§ 105-37.1. (Effective July 1, 1999) Dances, athletic events, shows, exhibitions, and other entertainments.

- (a) Scope. A privilege tax is imposed on the gross receipts of a person who is engaged in any of the following:
 - (1) Giving, offering, or managing a dance or an athletic contest for which an admission fee in excess of fifty cents (50ϕ) is charged.

- 1 (2) Giving, offering, or managing a form of amusement or entertainment
 2 that is not taxed by another provision of this Article and for which an 3 admission fee is charged.
 - (3) Exhibiting a performance, show, or exhibition, such as a circus or dog show, that is not taxed by another provision of this Article.
 - (b) Rate and Payment. The rate of the privilege tax is three percent (3%) of the gross receipts from the activities described in subsection (a) of this section. The tax is due when a return is due. A return is due by the 10th day after the end of each month and covers the gross receipts received during the previous month.
 - (c) Advance Report. A person who owns or controls a performance, show, or exhibition subject to the tax imposed by this section and who plans to bring the performance to this State from outside the State must file a statement with the Secretary that lists the dates, times, and places of the performance, show, or exhibition. The statement must be filed no less than five days before the first performance, show, or exhibition in this State.
 - (d) Local Taxes. Cities may levy a license tax on a person taxed under subdivision (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this section; however, the tax may not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Cities may levy a license tax on a person taxed under subdivision (a)(3) of this section; however, the tax may not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each day or part of a day the performance, show, or exhibition is given at each location.

Counties may not levy a license tax on a person taxed under subdivision (a)(1) or (a)(2) of this section. Counties may levy a license tax on a person taxed under subdivision (a)(3) to the same extent as a city."

Section 18.(b) G.S. 105-38 is repealed.

Section 18.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 1999.

Section 19.(a) G.S. 105-38.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-38.1. Amusements -- Motion picture shows. show admissions.

- (a) Tax. A privilege-An admissions tax at the rate of one percent (1%) is imposed as a privilege tax on the gross receipts of a person who is engaged in the business of operating a motion picture show for which an admission is charged. The tax is due when a return is due. A return is due by the 10th day after the end of each month and covers the gross receipts received during the previous month. If a person offers an entertainment or amusement that includes both a motion picture taxable under this section and an entertainment or amusement taxable under G.S. 105-37.1 or G.S. 105-37.1, the tax in G.S. 105-37.1 or G.S. 105-38, as appropriate, that statute applies to the entire gross receipts and the tax levied in this section does not apply.
- (b) Exemption. Gross receipts from a motion picture show promoted and managed by a qualifying corporation that operates a center for the performing and visual arts is exempt from the tax imposed under this section if the motion picture is shown at the center and if the showing of motion pictures is not the primary purpose of the center. As used in this subsection, "qualifying corporation" and "center for the performing and visual arts" have the same meaning as in G.S. 105-40."
 - Section 19.(b) G.S. 105-40(7) reads as rewritten:

"(7) All dances dances, motion picture shows, and other amusements promoted and managed by a qualifying corporation that operates a center for the performing and visual arts if the dance or other amusement is held at the center. "Qualifying corporation"means a corporation that is exempt from income tax under G.S. 105-130.11(a)(3). "Center for the performing and visual arts"means a facility, having a fixed location, that provides space for dramatic performances, studios, classrooms, and similar accommodations to organized arts groups and individual artists. This exemption does not apply to athletic events."

Section 19.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 1999.

Section 20. G.S. 105-109.1 is repealed.

Section 21. G.S. 105-113 is repealed.

Section 22. G.S. 105-113.27(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The possession of more than six hundred cigarettes bearing the tax stamp of on which tax has been paid to another state or country, by any person other than a licensed distributor, shall be is prima facie evidence that the cigarettes are possessed in violation of this Part."

Section 23. G.S. 105-114(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this Article:

(2) Corporation. – A domestic corporation, a foreign corporation, an electric membership corporation organized under Chapter 117 of the General Statutes or doing business in this State, or an association that is organized for pecuniary gain, has capital stock represented by shares, whether with or without par value, and has privileges not possessed by individuals or partnerships. The term includes a mutual or capital stock savings and loan association or building and loan association chartered under the laws of any state or of the United States. The term does not include a limited liability company."

Section 24. G.S. 105-122(c)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(c) (1) After ascertaining and determining the amount of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, as provided herein, every corporation permitted to allocate and apportion its net income for income tax purposes under the provisions of Article 4 of this Chapter shall apportion said capital stock, surplus and undivided profits to this State through use of the fraction computed for apportionment of its business income under said Article. A corporation that is subject to business income under said Article. A corporation that is subject to franchise tax under this Article but is not subject to income tax under Article 4 of this Chapter must apportion its capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits to this State by using the apportionment formula that would apply to the corporation if it were subject to Article 4.

Provided, that although a corporation is authorized by the Tax Review Board to apportion its business income by use of an alternative formula or method, the corporation may not use such alternative formula or method for apportioning its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits unless specifically authorized to do so by order of the Tax Review Board.

Provided, further, that a corporation which is required to pay an income tax to this State on its entire net income shall apportion its entire capital stock, surplus and undivided profits to this State."

Section 25. G.S. 105-130.16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-130.16. Returns.

- (a) Return. Every corporation doing business in this State shall file with the Secretary of Revenue-must file with the Secretary an income tax return under affirmation, showing therein-specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by this Part, Part and such other facts as the Secretary may require for the purpose of making any other facts the Secretary requires to make any computation required by this Part. The return of a corporation shall be signed by either must be signed by its president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary secretary, or assistant secretary. There shall be annexed to the return the affirmation of the officer signing the same, which shall be in the form prescribed in G.S. 105-130.17 of this Part, and the same penalties prescribed in G.S. 105-236 shall apply to any person making wilful misstatements in said returns.—The officer signing the return must furnish an affirmation verifying the return. The affirmation must be in the form required by the Secretary.
- (b) Correction of Distortions.—When the Secretary of Revenue—has reason to believe that any corporation so conducts its trade or business in such manner as to either directly or indirectly distort its true net income and the net income properly attributable to the State, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income, through price fixing, charges for service, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another unit in a group of taxpayers carrying on business under a substantially common control, he may require such facts as he deems the Secretary may require any facts the Secretary considers necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to the State, and in determining same the Secretary of Revenue shall—these computations, the Secretary must have regard to the fair profit which—that would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.
- (c) Other Corrections. When any corporation liable to taxation under this Part conducts its business in such a manner as to either directly or indirectly benefit the members or stockholders thereof or any person interested in such the business by selling its products or goods or commodities in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, or where when a corporation, a substantial portion of whose capital stock is owned either directly or indirectly by another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products of the corporation so owning a substantial portion of its stock in such a manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said the corporations, or where when a corporation, owning directly or indirectly a substantial portion of the stock of another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products of the corporation of which it so owns a substantial portion of the stock in such manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said-the corporations, the Secretary of Revenue-may determine the amount of taxable income of any-the such corporations for the calendar or fiscal year, having due regard to the reasonable profits which, but for such arrangement or understanding, might or could have been obtained by the corporation or corporations liable to taxation under this Part from dealing in such products, goods or commodities."

Section 26. G.S. 105-130.33(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any corporation that constructs or installs a hydroelectric generator with a capacity of at least three kilowatts (3KW) at an existing dam or free flowing stream located in this State shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this Part equal to ten percent (10%) of the installation and equipment costs of the hydroelectric generator paid during the taxable year. The credit allowed under this section may not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for any single installation. No credit is allowed, however, to the extent that any of the costs of the system were provided by federal, State, or local grants. To secure the credit allowed by this section, the taxpayer must own or control the site at the time the hydroelectric generator is installed. The credit allowed by this section may not exceed the amount of the tax imposed by this Part for the taxable year reduced by the sum of all credits allowable under this Part, allowable, except payments of tax made by or on behalf of the taxpayer."

Section 27. G.S. 105-131.7(d) reads as rewritten:

- "(d) The agreements required to be filed pursuant to subsection (c) of this section shall be filed at the following times:
 - (1) At the time the annual return is required to be filed for the first taxable period for which the S Corporation becomes subject to the provisions of this Division; and Part.
 - (2) At the time the annual return is required to be filed for any taxable period in which the corporation has a nonresident shareholder on whose behalf such an agreement has not been previously filed."

Section 28. G.S. 105-152(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Joint Returns. – A husband and wife shall file a single income tax return jointly if (i) their federal taxable income is determined on a joint federal return and (ii) both spouses are residents of this State or both spouses have North Carolina taxable income. Except as otherwise provided in this Part, a wife and husband filing jointly are treated as one taxpayer for the purpose of determining the tax imposed by this Part. A husband and wife filing jointly are jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this Part reduced by the sum of all credits allowable including tax payments made by or on behalf of the husband and wife. However, if a spouse has been relieved of liability for federal tax attributable to a substantial understatement by the other spouse pursuant to section 6013 6015 of the Code, that spouse is not liable for the corresponding tax imposed by this Part attributable to the same substantial understatement by the other spouse. A wife and husband filing jointly have expressly agreed that if the amount of the payments made by

Section 29. G.S. 105-154(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Information Returns of Partnerships. – A partnership doing business in this State and required to file a return under the Code shall file an information return with the Secretary. A partnership that the Secretary believes to be doing business in this State and to be required to file a return under the Code shall file an information return when requested to do so by the Secretary. The information return shall contain all information required by the Secretary. It shall state specifically the items of the partnership's gross income, the deductions allowed under the Code, and the adjustments required by this Part. The information return shall also include the name and address of each person who would be entitled to share in the partnership's net income, if distributable, and the amount each person's distributive share would be. The information return shall specify the part of each person's distributive share of the net income that represents corporation dividends. The information return shall be signed by one of the partners under affirmation in the form prescribed in G.S. 105-155. required by the Secretary.

A partnership that files an information return under this subsection shall furnish to each person who would be entitled to share in the partnership's net income, if distributable, any information necessary for that person to properly file a State income tax return. The information shall be in the form prescribed by the Secretary and must be furnished on or before the due date of the information return."

Section 30. G.S. 105-163.011 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-163.011. (Repealed effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2003) Tax credits allowed.

- No Credit for Brokered Investments. No credit is allowed under this section for a purchase of equity securities or subordinated debt if a broker's fee or commission or other similar remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting the purchase.
- Individuals. Subject to the limitations contained in G.S. 105-163.012, an (b) individual who purchases the equity securities or subordinated debt of a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business directly from that business is allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by Part 2 of this Article for the taxable year an amount equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount invested. The aggregate amount of credit allowed an individual for one or more investments in a single taxable year under this Division, Part, whether directly or indirectly as owner of a pass-through entity, may not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The credit may not be taken for the year in which the investment is made but shall be taken for the taxable year beginning during the calendar year in which the application for the credit becomes effective as provided in subsection (c) of this section.
- Pass-Through Entities. This subsection does not apply to a pass-through entity that has committed capital under management in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or to a pass-through entity that is a qualified grantee business, a qualified business venture, or a North Carolina Enterprise Corporation. Subject to the limitations provided in G.S. 105-163.012, a pass-through entity that purchases the equity securities or subordinated debt of a qualified grantee business or a qualified business venture directly from the business is eligible for a tax credit equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount invested. The aggregate amount of credit allowed a pass-through entity for one or more investments in a single taxable year under this Division,—Part, whether directly or indirectly as owner of another pass-through entity, may not exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000). The pass-through entity is not eligible for the credit for the year in which the investment by the pass-through entity is made but shall be eligible for the credit for the taxable year beginning during the calendar year in which the application for the credit becomes effective as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

Each individual who is an owner of a pass-through entity is allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by Part 2 of this Article for the taxable year an amount equal to the owner's allocated share of the credits for which the pass-through entity is eligible under this subsection. The aggregate amount of credit allowed an individual for one or more investments in a single taxable year under this Division, Part, whether directly or indirectly as owner of a pass-through entity, may not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

If an owner's share of the pass-through entity's credit is limited due to the maximum allowable credit under this section for a taxable year, the pass-through entity and its owners may not reallocate the unused credit among the other owners.

- (c) Application. To be eligible for the tax credit provided in this section, the taxpayer must file an application for the credit with the Secretary on or before April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which the investment was made. The Secretary may grant extensions of this deadline, as the Secretary finds appropriate, upon the request of the taxpayer, except that the application may not be filed after September 15 of the year following the calendar year in which the investment was made. An application is effective for the year in which it is timely filed. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the Secretary and shall include any supporting documentation that the Secretary may require. If an investment for which a credit is applied for was paid for other than in money, the taxpayer shall include with the application a certified appraisal of the value of the property used to pay for the investment. The application for a credit for an investment made by a pass-through entity must be filed by the pass-through entity.
- (d) Penalties. The penalties provided in G.S. 105-236 apply in this Division. Part."

 "(4d) The lease or rental of burlap-tobacco sheets used in handling tobacco in the warehouse and transporting tobacco to and from the warehouse."

 Section 35.(a) G.S. 105-187.43 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-187.43. (Effective July 1, 1999) Payment of the tax.

- (a) Monthly Return. Payment. The tax imposed by this Article is payable monthly to the Secretary. A monthly tax payment is due by the last day of the month that follows the month in which the tax accrues. The tax imposed by this Article on piped natural gas delivered to a sales or transportation customer accrues when the gas is delivered. The tax payable on piped natural gas received by a person who has direct access to an interstate pipeline for consumption by that person accrues when the gas is received.
- (b) Small Underpayments. A person is not subject to interest on or penalties for an underpayment of a monthly amount due if the person timely pays at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the amount due and includes the underpayment with the next return the person files.
- (c) Return. A return is due quarterly. A quarterly return covers a calendar quarter and is due by the last day of the month that follows the quarter covered by the return."

Section 35.(b) G.S. 105-187.44 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-187.44. (Effective July 1, 1999) Distribution of part of tax proceeds to cities.

- (a) City Information. A monthly quarterly return filed under this Article must indicate the amount of tax attributable to the following:
 - (1) Piped natural gas delivered during the month—quarter to sales or transportation customers in each city in the State.
 - Piped natural gas received during the month quarter in each city in the State by persons who have direct access to an interstate gas pipeline and who receive the gas for their own consumption.

If a tax return does not state this information, the Secretary must determine how much of the tax proceeds are to be attributed to each city.

(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section."

Section 36. G.S. 105-194 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-194. Death of donor within three years; time of assessment.

Where If a donor dies within three years after filing a return, gift taxes may be assessed at any time within said those three years, or on or before the date of final settlement of the donor's State estate or inheritance taxes, whichever is later."

Section 37. G.S. 105-253(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any officer, trustee, or receiver of any corporation or limited liability company required to file a report with the Secretary who has custody of funds of the corporation or company and who allows the funds to be paid out or distributed to the stockholders of the corporation or company without having remitted to the Secretary any State taxes that are due is personally liable for the payment of the tax."

Section 38.(a) G.S. 105-275 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(41) Objects of art held by the North Carolina State Art Society, Incorporated."

Section 38.(b) G.S. 140-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 140T All gifts made to the North Carolina State Art Society, Incorporated, shall be exempt from State gift and inheritance taxes, and objects of art held by the Society shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes."

Section 39. G.S. 160A-31(e2), as enacted by S.L. 1999-19, as it applies to the Town of Huntersville, reads as rewritten:

"(e2) Annexation of property subject to annexation under subsection (e1) of this section shall become effective as to each tract of such property or such part thereof on the last day of the month in which that tract or part thereof becomes ineligible for classification pursuant to G.S. 105-227.4 G.S. 105-277.4 and no longer meets the requirements of subdivision (e1)(2) of this section. Until annexation of a tract or a part of a tract becomes effective pursuant to this subsection, the tract or part of a tract is not subject to taxation by the city under Article 12 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, nor is the tract or part of the tract entitled to services provided by the city. When annexation becomes effective pursuant to this subsection as to a tract or part of a tract, the city shall provide all required services upon payment of city taxes."

Section 40. This act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this act before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal.

Section 41. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act is effective when it becomes law.
