The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 121-38 reads as rewritten:

"§ 121-38. Validity of agreements.

(a) No conservation or preservation agreement shall be unenforceable because of

(1) Lack of privity of estate or contract, or

(2) Lack of benefit to particular land or person, or

(3) The assignability of the benefit to another holder as defined in this Article.

(b) ~~Such~~ These agreements are interests in land and may be acquired by any holder in the same manner as it may acquire other interests in land.

(c) ~~Such~~ These agreements may be effective perpetually or for shorter stipulated periods of time.

(d) ~~Such~~ These agreements may impose present, future, or continuing obligations on either party to the agreement, or their successors, in furtherance of the purposes of the agreement.

(e) These agreements may contain provisions which require the payment of a fee upon a future conveyance of the property which is subject to the agreement. The fee shall be paid by the grantor in the future conveyance to the holder as defined in this Article. The fee may be in an amount set forth in the agreement, or it may be a percentage of the consideration or value of the interest conveyed. If the fee is based upon a percentage of the value, it shall not exceed two percent (2%). If the conveyance includes in one deed property that is subject to an agreement and property that is not

1 subject to an agreement, the grantor shall specify the amount of consideration or value
2 received for the portion of the property that is subject to the agreement. The fee shall be
3 paid at the time of the conveyance and shall be the obligation of the grantor. This 4 subsection shall not apply to conveyances for which no excise tax is payable under 5 Article 8E of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. The fee shall be payable for all future
6 conveyances subject to limitations set forth herein or limitations specified in the 7 agreement. Any provision in an agreement which requires the payment of a fee upon 8 future conveyances shall terminate the earlier of the time specified in the agreement or 9 90 years from the date of the agreement."
