1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF EUGENE BURNS
2 TURNER.

3 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner was born on September 16, 1924, to Samuel D.
4 Turner and Ollie Emerson Turner in Goldston, North Carolina; and

5 Whereas, after graduation from I.S. Waters School, Eugene Burns Turner furthered
6 his education by attending several institutions, including Friendship College in Rock Hill,
7 South Carolina, North Carolina Central University in Durham, North Carolina, and Shaw 8 University in Raleigh, North Carolina; and

9 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner earned both a bachelor's and master's degree and 10 continued his quest for knowledge his entire life even as his sight grew dim by reading several 11 religious documents and a number of newspapers each day; and

12 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner served as pastor of the First Baptist Church in 13 Lumberton for 57 years before retiring in November 2005; and

14 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner served as President of the General Baptist State
15 Convention, becoming the first president to welcome female ministers into the organization; 16 and

17 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner was one of Robeson County's most influential 18 leaders, providing excellent service to all while serving on the Robeson County Board of 19 Commissioners for 12 years and the Lumberton City Council for nearly 30 years, during which 20 time he served as Mayor Pro Tempore; and

21 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner served as Vice-Chair of the North Carolina
22 Democratic Party, President of the North Carolina League of Municipalities, and as a member 23 of the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina; and

24 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner received numerous awards and was awarded several 25 honorary doctoral degrees for his good works; and

26 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner loved his country upbringing and continued to keep 27 animals and grow vegetables, but his strongest passions were his faith, helping people in need, 28 and politics; and

29 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner was married to Georgia Anna McNeill, whom he 30 met at Shaw University, for nearly 56 years; and

31 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner died on October 5, 2008, at the age of 84; and

32 Whereas, Eugene Burns Turner is survived by his two daughters, Andrea Lesa and 33 Rosalind Arlene; five grandchildren, Eugene, Leah, Rachel, Gerald, and Greg; two 34 great-grandchildren, Micah and Chloe; and two sisters, Inease T. Wicker and Thelma N.
35 Turner; Now, therefore,

36 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:
