6 SECTION 1. The Department of Correction, in consultation with the Sentencing 7 and Policy Advisory Commission, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Conference of 8 District Attorneys, Office of Indigent Defense Services, the Department of Health and Human 9 Services, the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the School of 10 Government at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and other organizations and 11 agencies it deems appropriate, shall study comprehensive reform of the State's approach to 12 community corrections. The study shall consider the integration of evidence-based practices 13 into all aspects of community corrections and the development of cost-effective ways to 14 manage offenders without compromising public safety. The study shall review data from North

18 costs of the identified programs and their projected impact on offender populations in prison
19 and under community supervision. The Department shall report its findings, including proposed
