

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
SESSION 2013

H

2

HOUSE BILL 743
Committee Substitute Favorable 5/14/13

Short Title: UI Laws Administrative Changes.

(Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

April 11, 2013

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL, ADMINISTRATIVE, AND CLARIFYING CHANGES
3 TO THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAWS.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 SECTION 1. G.S. 96-4(q), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

6 "(q) ~~The Division~~ Board of Review after due notice shall have the right and power to 7 hold and conduct hearings for the purpose of determining the rights, status and liabilities of an 8 employer. The Board of Review shall have the power and authority to determine any and all 9 questions and issues of fact or questions of law that may arise under the Employment Security 10 Law that may affect the rights, liabilities and status of an employer including the right to 11 determine the amount of contributions, if any, which may be due the Division by any employer.
12 Hearings may be before the Board of Review and shall be held in the central office of the 13 Board of Review or at any other designated place within the State. They shall be open to the 14 public and shall consist of a review of the evidence taken by a hearing officer designated by the 15 Board of Review and a determination of the law applicable to that evidence. The Board of 16 Review shall provide for the taking of evidence by a hearing officer employed in the capacity 17 of an attorney by the Department. Such hearing officer shall have the same power to issue 18 subpoenas, administer oaths, conduct hearings and take evidence as is possessed by the Board
19 of Review and such hearings shall be recorded, and he shall transmit all testimony and records 20 of such hearings to the Board for its determination. All such hearings conducted by such 21 hearing officer shall be scheduled and held in any county in this State in which the employer
22 resides, maintains a place of business, or conducts business; however, the Board of Review 23 may require additional testimony at any hearings held by it at its office. From all decisions or 24 determinations made by the Board of Review, any party affected thereby shall be entitled to an 25 appeal to the superior court. Before a party shall be allowed to appeal, the party shall within 10 26 days after notice of such decision or determination, file with the Board of Review exceptions to 27 the decision or the determination, which exceptions will state the grounds of objection to the 28 decision or determination. If any one of the exceptions shall be overruled then the party may 29 appeal from the order overruling the exceptions, and shall, within 10 days after the decision 30 overruling the exceptions, give notice of his appeal. When an exception is made to the facts as 31 found by the Board of Review, the appeal shall be to the superior court in term time but the 32 decision or determination of the Board of Review upon such review in the superior court shall 33 be conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact supported by any competent evidence.
34 When an exception is made to any rulings of law, as determined by the Board of Review, the 35 appeal shall be to the judge of the superior court at chambers. The party appealing shall, within 36 10 days after the notice of appeal has been served, file with the Board of Review exceptions to

* H 7 4 3 - V - 2 *

1 the decision or determination overruling the exception which statement shall assign the errors 2 complained of and the grounds of the appeal. Upon the filing of such statement the Board of 3 Review shall, within 30 days, transmit all the papers and evidence considered by it, together 4 with the assignments of errors filed by the appellant to a judge of the superior court holding 5 court or residing in some district in which such appellant either resides, maintains a place of 6 business or conducts business, or, unless the appellant objects after being given reasonable 7 opportunity to object, to a judge of the Superior Court of Wake County: Provided, however, the 8 30-day period specified herein may be extended by agreement of parties."

9 SECTION 2. G.S. 96-4(u), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

10 "(u) Notices of hearing shall be issued by the ~~Division~~ Board of Review or its authorized 11 representative and sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of 12 employer, employers, persons, or firms involved. The notice shall be sent at least 15 days prior 13 to the hearing date and shall contain notification of the place, date, hour, and purpose of the 14 hearing. Subpoenas for witnesses to appear at any hearing shall be issued by the Division or its 15 authorized representative and shall order the witness to appear at the time, date and place 16 shown thereon. Any bond or other undertaking required to be given in order to suspend or stay 17 any execution shall be given payable to the Department of Commerce. Any such bond or other 18 undertaking may be forfeited or sued upon as are any other undertakings payable to the State."

19 SECTION 3. G.S. 96-5.1(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

20 "(a) Fund Established. – The Supplemental Employment Security Administration Fund 21 is created as a special revenue fund. The fund consists of all interest and penalties paid under 22 this Chapter by employers on overdue contributions and any appropriations made to the fund 23 by the General Assembly. Penalties collected on unpaid taxes imposed by this section must be 24 transferred to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund established in G.S. 115C-457.1."

25 SECTION 4. G.S. 96-9.2(b), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

26 "(b) Standard Beginning Rate. – The standard beginning rate applies to an employer 27 until the employer's account has been chargeable with benefits for at least 12 calendar months 28 ending July 31 immediately preceding the computation date. An employer's account has been 29 chargeable with benefits for at least 12 calendar months if the employer has reported wages 30 paid in four completed calendar quarters and ~~these quarters are in~~ its liability extends over all or 31 part of two consecutive calendar years."

32 SECTION 5. G.S. 96-9.6(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

33 "(e) Annual Reconciliation. – A reimbursing employer must maintain an account 34 balance equal to one percent (1%) of its taxable wages. The Division must determine the 35 balance of each employer's account on the computation date. If there is a deficit in the account, 36 the Division must bill the employer for the amount necessary to bring its account to one percent 37 (1%) of its taxable wages for the ~~preceding calendar year~~ immediate four quarters preceding 38 July 1. Any amount in the account in excess of the one percent (1%) of taxable wages will be 39 retained in the employer's account as a credit and will not be refunded to the employer. The 40 Division must send a bill as soon as practical. Payment is due within 30 days from the date a 41 bill is mailed. Amounts unpaid by the due date accrue interest and penalties in the same manner 42 as past-due contributions and are subject to the same collection remedies provided under 43 G.S. 96-10 for past-due contributions."

44 SECTION 6. G.S. 96-9.6(i), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

45 "(i) Transition. – This subsection provides a transitional adjustment period for an 46 employer that elected to be a reimbursing employer prior to January 1, 2013, and was not 47 required to submit an advance payment with its first four quarterly reports equal to one percent 48 (1%) of its reported taxable wages. This subsection expires January 1, 2016.

49 (1) Governmental entities. – An employer that is a State or local governmental 50 unit must reimburse the Division in the amount required by subsection (c) of 51 this section for benefits paid on its behalf, as determined on the computation

1 date in 2013, but it does not have to reconcile its account balance, as 2 required under subsection (e) of this section, until 2014. If the employer's 3 account balance on the computation date in 2014 does not equal one percent 4 (1%) of its taxable wages reported for the ~~2013 calendar year,~~preceding 5 fiscal year, the Division will bill the employer for the deficiency.

6"

7 SECTION 7. G.S. 96-9.7(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

8 "(a) Surtax Imposed. – A surtax is imposed on an employer who is required to make a 9 contribution to the Unemployment Insurance Fund equal to twenty percent (20%) of the 10 contribution due under G.S. 96-9.2. Except as provided in this section, the surtax is collected 11 and administered in the same manner as contributions. Surtaxes collected under this section 12 must be credited to the Unemployment Insurance Reserve Fund established under ~~G.S. 96-6.~~ 13 G.S. 96-6.1. Interest and penalties collected on unpaid surtaxes imposed by this section must be 14 credited to the Supplemental Employment Security Administration Fund. Penalties collected on 15 unpaid surtaxes imposed by this section must be transferred ~~credited~~ to the Civil Penalty and 16 Forfeiture Fund established in G.S. 115C-457.1."

17 SECTION 8. G.S. 96-10(g) reads as rewritten:

18 "(g) Upon the motion of the Division, any employer refusing to submit any report 19 required under this Chapter, after 10 days' written notice sent by the Division by registered or 20 certified mail to the employer's last known address, may be enjoined by any court of competent 21 jurisdiction from hiring and continuing in employment any employees until such report is 22 properly submitted. When an execution has been returned to the Division unsatisfied, and the 23 employer, after 10 days' written notice sent by the Division by registered or certified mail to the 24 employer's last known address, refuses to pay the contributions covered by the execution, such 25 employer shall upon the motion of the Division be enjoined by any court of competent 26 jurisdiction from hiring and continuing in employment any employees until such contributions 27 have been paid.

28 An employer who fails to file a report within the required time shall be assessed a late filing 29 penalty of five percent (5%) of the amount of contributions due with the report for each month
30 or fraction of a month the failure continues. The penalty may not exceed twenty-five percent 31 (25%) of the amount of contributions due. An employer who fails to file a report within the 32 required time but owes no contributions shall not be assessed a penalty unless the employer's 33 failure to file continues for more than 30 days."

34 SECTION 9. G.S. 96-11.2, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

35 "§ 96-11.2. Allocation of charges to base period employers.

36 Benefits paid to an individual are charged to an employer's account when the individual's 37 benefit year has expired. Benefits paid to an individual must be allocated to the account of each 38 base period employer in the proportion that the base period wages paid to the individual in a 39 calendar quarter by each base period employer bears to the total wages paid to the individual in 40 ~~that quarter~~ the base period by all base period employers. The amount allocated to an employer 41 that pays contributions is multiplied by one hundred twenty percent (120%) and charged to that 42 employer's account. The amount allocated to an employer that elects to reimburse the 43 Unemployment Insurance Fund in lieu of paying contributions is the amount of benefits 44 charged to that employer's account."

45 SECTION 10. G.S. 96-11.4(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

46 "(a) ...

47 (2) The employer or agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or 48 adequately to requests from the Division for information relating to claims 49 for unemployment compensation. In determining whether the employer or 50 agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately, the Division 51 must consider the number of documented instances of that employer's or

1 agent's failures to respond in relation to the total requests made to that 2 employer or agent. An employer or agent may not be determined to have a 3 pattern of failing to respond if the number of failures during the year prior to 4 the request is ~~less~~ fewer than two or less than two percent (2%) of the total 5 requests made to that employer or ~~agent, whichever is greater.~~ agent."

6 SECTION 11. G.S. 96-14.1(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

7 "(e) Federal Restrictions. – Benefits are not payable for services performed by the 8 following individuals, to the extent prohibited by section 3304 of the Code:

9 (1) Instructional, research, or principal administrative employees of educational 10 institutions.

11 (2) Services in any other capacity for an educational institution.

12 ~~(2)(3)~~ Professional athletes.

13 ~~(3)(4)~~ Aliens."

14 SECTION 12. G.S. 96-14.9(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

15 "(d) ...

16 (4) The individual is on disciplinary suspension for ~~more than 30~~ or fewer days 17 based on acts or omissions that constitute fault on the part of the employee 18 and are connected with the work."

19 SECTION 13. G.S. 96-14.10, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

20 "§ 96-14.10. Disciplinary suspension.

21 The disciplinary suspension of an employee for 30 or fewer consecutive calendar days does 22 not constitute good cause for leaving work. An individual who is on suspension is not available 23 for work and is not eligible for benefits for any week during any part of the disciplinary 24 suspension. If the disciplinary suspension exceeds 30 days, the individual is considered to have 25 been discharged from work because of the acts or omissions that caused the suspension and the 26 issue is whether the discharge was for disqualifying reasons. During the period of suspension of 27 ~~up to 30 or fewer~~ days, the individual is considered to be attached to the employer's payroll, 28 and the issue of separation from work is held in abeyance until a claim is filed for a week to 29 which this section does not apply."

30 SECTION 14. G.S. 96-15(a1), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

31 "(a1) Attached Claims. – An employer may file claims for employees through the use of 32 automation in the case of partial unemployment. An employer may file an attached claim for an 33 employee only once during a ~~calendar year,~~ benefit year, and the period of partial 34 unemployment for which the claim is filed may not exceed six weeks. To file an attached 35 claim, an employer must pay the Division an amount equal to the full cost of unemployment 36 benefits payable to the employee under the attached claim at the time the attached claim is 37 filed. The Division must credit the amounts paid to the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

38 An employer may file an attached claim under this subsection only if the employer has a 39 positive credit balance in its account as determined under Article 2B of this Chapter. If an 40 employer does not have a positive credit balance in its account, the employer must remit to the 41 Division an amount equal to the amount necessary to bring the employer's negative credit 42 balance to at least zero at the time the employer files the attached claim."

43 SECTION 15. G.S. 96-15(b), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

44 "(b) ...

45 (2) Adjudication. – When a protest is made by the claimant to the initial or 46 monetary determination, or a question or issue is raised or presented as to the 47 eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification should be imposed, 48 or benefits denied or adjusted pursuant to G.S. 96-18, the matter shall be 49 referred to an adjudicator. The adjudicator may consider any matter, 50 document or statement deemed to be pertinent to the issues, including 51 telephone conversations, and after such consideration shall render a

1 conclusion as to the claimant's benefit entitlements. The adjudicator shall 2 notify the claimant and all other interested parties of the conclusion reached.
3 The conclusion of the adjudicator shall be deemed the final decision of the 4 Division unless within 30 days after the date of notification or mailing of the 5 conclusion, whichever is earlier, a written appeal is filed pursuant to rules 6 adopted by the Division. The Division shall be deemed an interested party 7 for such purposes and may remove to itself or transfer to an appeals referee 8 the proceedings involving any claim pending before an adjudicator.

9 Provided, any interested employer shall be allowed ~~40~~14 days from the 10 mailing or delivery of the notice of the filing of a claim against the 11 employer's account, whichever first occurs, to file with the Division its 12 account to protest of the claim in order to ~~and~~ have the claim referred to an 13 adjudicator for a decision on the question or issue raised. Any protest filed 14 must contain a basis for the protest and supporting statement of facts, and the 15 protest may not be amended after the 14-day period from the mailing or 16 delivery of the notice of filing of a claim has expired. A copy of the notice of 17 the filing shall be sent contemporaneously to the employer by telefacsimile 18 transmission if a fax number is on file. No payment of benefits shall be made 19 by the Division to a claimant until one of the following occurs:

20 a. The employer has filed a timely protest to the claim.

21 b. The 14-day period for the filing of a protest by the employer has 22 expired.

23 c. A determination under this subdivision has been made.

24 Provided further, no question or issue may be raised or presented by the 25 Division as to the eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification 26 should be imposed, after 45 days from the first day of the first week after the 27 question or issue occurs with respect to which week an individual filed a 28 claim for benefits. None of the provisions of this subsection shall have the 29 force and effect nor shall the same be construed or interested as repealing 30 any other provisions of G.S. 96-18.

31 An employer shall receive written notice of the employer's appeal rights 32 and any forms that are required to allow the employer to protest the claim.
33 The forms shall include a section referencing the appropriate rules pertaining 34 to appeals and the instructions on how to appeal."

35 SECTION 16. G.S. 96-9.15(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

36 "(d) Form of Report. – An employer must complete the tax form prescribed by the 37 Division. An employer or an agent of an employer that reports wages for at least 25 employees 38 must file the portion of the "Employer's Quarterly Tax and Wage Report" that contains the 39 name, social security number, and gross wages of each employee in ~~a~~an electronic format 40 prescribed by the Division. For failure of an employer to comply with this subsection, the 41 Division must assess a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). For failure of an agent of an 42 employer to comply with this subsection, the Division may deny the agent the right to report 43 wages and file reports for that employer for a period of one year following the calendar quarter 44 in which the agent filed the improper report. The Division may reduce or waive a penalty for 45 good cause shown."

46 SECTION 17. Section 11 of S.L. 2013-2 reads as rewritten:

47 "SECTION 11. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to 48 unemployment benefits apply to claims for benefits filed on or after ~~July 1, 2013.~~ June 30, 49 2013. The requirements of G.S. 96-15(a1), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2 and amended by Section 50 14 of this act, apply to any week of an attached claim filed on or after June 30, 2013. Changes 51 made by this act to require an account balance by an employer that is a governmental entity or a

1 nonprofit organization and that elects to finance benefits by making reimbursable payments in 2 lieu of contributions apply to advance payments payable for calendar quarters beginning on or 3 after July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to the determination and application of the 4 contribution rate apply to contributions payable for calendar quarters beginning on or after 5 January 1, 2014."

6 SECTION 18.(a) G.S. 96-4(x)(6), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

7 "(6) Nothing in this subsection (x)(~~6~~) shall operate to relieve any claimant or 8 employer from disclosing any information required by this Chapter or by 9 regulations promulgated thereunder."

10 SECTION 18.(b) G.S. 96-4(x)(7) reads as rewritten:

11 "(7) Nothing in this subsection (x)(~~7~~) shall be construed to prevent the Division 12 from allowing any individual or entity to examine and copy any report, 13 return, or any other written communication made by that individual or entity 14 to the Division, its agents, or its employees."

15 SECTION 18.(c) G.S. 96-9.5(4)(c.), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

16 "c. The employer has elected coverage in this State in accordance with 17 ~~G.S. 96-9.9.~~G.S. 96-9.8."

18 SECTION 18.(d) G.S. 96-10(d) reads as rewritten:

19 "(d) Collections of Contributions upon Transfer or Cessation of Business. – The 20 contribution or tax imposed by G.S. 96-9.2, ~~G.S. 96-9~~, and subsections thereunder, of this 21 Chapter shall be a lien upon the assets of the business of any employer subject to the provisions 22 hereof who shall lease, transfer or sell out his business, or shall cease to do business and such 23 employer shall be required, by the next reporting date as prescribed by the Division, to file with 24 the Division all reports and pay all contributions due with respect to wages payable for 25 employment up to the date of such lease, transfer, sale or cessation of the business and such 26 employer's successor in business shall be required to withhold sufficient of the purchase money 27 to cover the amount of said contributions due and unpaid until such time as the former owner or 28 employer shall produce a receipt from the Division showing that the contributions have been 29 paid, or a certificate that no contributions are due. If the purchaser of a business or a successor 30 of such employer shall fail to withhold purchase money or any money due to such employer in 31 consideration of a lease or other transfer and the contributions shall be due and unpaid after the 32 next reporting date, as above set forth, such successor shall be personally liable to the extent of 33 the assets of the business so acquired for the payment of the contributions accrued and unpaid 34 on account of the operation of the business by the former owner or employer."

35 SECTION 18.(e) G.S. 96-14.11(c)(2), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 36 rewritten:

37 "(2) The individual was recalled in a week in which the work search 38 requirements were satisfied under ~~G.S. 96-14.7(g)~~ G.S. 96-14.9(g) due to job 39 attachment."

40 SECTION 18.(f) G.S. 96-14.14(c)(2), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 41 rewritten:

42 "(2) The individual has satisfied the requirements of this Chapter for the receipt 43 of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended 44 benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of 45 benefits. Provided, however, that for purposes of disqualification for 46 extended benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after March 31, 47 1981, the term "suitable work" means any work which is within the 48 individual's capabilities to perform if: (i) The gross average weekly 49 remuneration payable for the work exceeds the sum of the individual's 50 weekly extended benefit amount plus the amount, if any, of supplemental 51 unemployment benefits (as defined in section 501(C)(17)(D) of the Internal

1 Revenue Code of 1954) payable to such individual for such week; and (ii) 2 the gross wages payable for the work equal the higher of the minimum 3 wages provided by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938
 4 as amended (without regard to any exemption), or the State minimum wage; 5 and (iii) the work is offered to the individual in writing and is listed with the 6 State employment service; and (iv) the considerations contained in 7 G.S. 96-14(3) for determining whether or not work is suitable are applied to 8 the extent that they are not inconsistent with the specific requirements of this 9 subdivision; and (v) the individual cannot furnish evidence satisfactory to 10 the Division that his prospects for obtaining work in his customary 11 occupation within a reasonably short period of time are good, but if the 12 individual submits evidence which the Division deems satisfactory for this 13 purpose, the determination of whether or not work is suitable with respect to 14 such individual shall be made in accordance with 15 G.S. 96-14.9(f)~~G.S. 96-14(3)~~ without regard to the definition contained in 16 this subdivision. Provided, further, that no work shall be deemed to be 17 suitable work for an individual which does not accord with the labor 18 standard provisions set forth in this subdivision, but the employment service 19 shall refer any individual claiming extended benefits to any work which is 20 deemed suitable hereunder. Provided, further, that any individual who has 21 been disqualified for voluntarily leaving employment, being discharged for 22 misconduct or substantial fault, or refusing suitable work under 23 G.S. 96-14.11~~G.S. 96-14~~ and who has had the disqualification terminated, 24 shall have such disqualification reinstated when claiming extended benefits 25 unless the termination of the disqualification was based upon employment 26 subsequent to the date of the disqualification."

27 SECTION 18.(g) G.S. 96-14.14(c)(3), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as

28 rewritten:

29 "(3) After March 31, 1981, he has not failed either to apply for or to accept an 30 offer of suitable work, as defined in G.S. 96-14.14(c)(2),~~G.S. 96-12.01(e)(2)~~, 31 to which he was referred by an employment office of the Division, and he 32 has furnished the Division with tangible evidence that he has actively 33 engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work. If an individual is 34 found to be ineligible hereunder, he shall be ineligible beginning with the 35 week in which he either failed to apply for or to accept the offer of suitable 36 work or failed to furnish the Division with tangible evidence that he has 37 actively engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work and such 38 individual shall continue to be ineligible for extended benefits until he has 39 been employed in each of four subsequent weeks (whether or not 40 consecutive) and has earned remuneration equal to not less than four times 41 his weekly benefit amount."

42 SECTION 18.(h) G.S. 96-14.14(e)(1), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as

43 rewritten:

44 "(1) Total Extended Benefit Amount. – Except as provided in subdivision (2) hereof, the 45 total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect 46 to his applicable benefit year shall be the least of the following amounts: 47 a. Fifty percent (50%) of the total amount of regular benefits which 48 were payable to him under this Chapter in his applicable benefit year; 49 or

1 b. Thirteen times his weekly benefit amount which was payable to him 2 under this Chapter for a week of total unemployment in the 3 applicable benefit year.

4 Provided, that during any fiscal year in which federal payments to states
5 under Section 204 of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment
6 Compensation Act of 1970, P.L. 91-373, are reduced under an order issued 7 under Section 252 of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control 8 Act of 1985, P.L. 99-177, the total extended benefit amount payable to an 9 individual with respect to his applicable benefit year shall be reduced by an 10 amount equal to the aggregate of the reductions under 11 G.S. 96-14.14(d)~~G.S. 96-12.01(d)~~ and the weekly amounts paid to the 12 individual."

13 SECTION 18.(i) G.S. 96-14.14(g), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 14 rewritten:

15 "(g) Prior to January 1, 1978, any extended benefits paid to any claimant under 16 G.S. 96-14.14~~G.S. 96-12.01~~ shall not be charged to the account of the base period employer(s)
17 who pay taxes as required by this Chapter. However, fifty percent (50%) of any such benefits 18 paid shall be allocated as provided in G.S. 96-11.2~~G.S. 96-9(e)(2)~~ a (except that 19 G.S. 96-11.3~~G.S. 96-9(e)(2)~~ b shall not apply), and the applicable amount shall be charged to 20 the account of the appropriate employer paying on a reimbursement basis in lieu of taxes.

21 On and after January 1, 1978, the federal portion of any extended benefits shall not be 22 charged to the account of any employer who pays taxes as required by this Chapter but the 23 State portion of such extended benefits shall be:

- 24 (1) Charged to the account of such employer; or 25 (2) Not charged to the account of the employer under the provisions of 26 G.S. 96-11.3~~G.S. 96-9(e)(2)~~.

27 All state portions of the extended benefits paid shall be charged to the account of 28 governmental entities or other employers not liable for FUTA taxes who are the base period 29 employers."

30 SECTION 18.(j) G.S. 96-14.14(h), as recodified by S.L. 2013-2, reads as 31 rewritten:

32 "(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 96-9.6, G.S. 96-14.14(g)~~G.S. 96-9(d)(1)a~~, 33 ~~96-9(d)(2)e~~, ~~96-12.01(g)~~, or any other provision of this Chapter, any extended benefits paid 34 which are one hundred percent (100%) federally financed shall not be charged in any 35 percentage to any employer's account."

36 SECTION 18.(k) G.S. 96-16(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

37 "(a) A seasonal pursuit is one which, because of seasonal conditions making it 38 impracticable or impossible to do otherwise, customarily carries on production operations only 39 within a regularly recurring active period or periods of less than an aggregate of 36 weeks in a 40 calendar year. No pursuit shall be deemed seasonal unless and until so found by the Division; 41 except that any successor under ~~G.S. 96-11.6~~ G.S. 96-11.7 to a seasonal pursuit shall be 42 deemed seasonal unless such successor shall within 120 days after the acquisition request 43 cancellation of the determination of status of such seasonal pursuit; provided further that this 44 provision shall not be applicable to pending cases nor retroactive in effect."

45 SECTION 18.(l) G.S. 96-16(d) reads as rewritten:

46 "(d) A seasonal determination shall become effective unless an interested party files an 47 application for review within 10 days after the beginning date of the first period of production 48 operations to which it applies. Such an application for review shall be deemed to be an 49 application for a determination of status, as provided in G.S. 96-4, subsections (q) through 50 (u)~~(m) through (q)~~, of this Chapter, and shall be heard and determined in accordance with the 51 provisions thereof."

1

SECTION 19. This act is effective when it becomes law.