2 the real estate broker, shall, within 30 days, transfer all advance rent paid by the tenant, and the 3 portion of any fees remaining after any lawful deductions made under G.S. 42A-16, to the

5 transferee's name and address. If a real estate broker is holding advanced rents paid by the tenant 6 pursuant to a vacation rental agreement at the time of the termination of the landlord's interest, the

34 accordance with either the standards of the National Fire Protection Association 35 or the minimum protection designated in the manufacturer's instructions, which 36 the landlord shall retain or provide as proof of compliance. A landlord that

38 be in compliance with standards under this subdivision covering the location

40 alarms within a commercially reasonable time after receipt of notification if the 41 landlord is notified of needed replacement or repairs in writing by the tenant.

44 agreement to the contrary, the landlord shall place new batteries in a 45 battery-operated carbon monoxide alarm annually and the tenant shall replace 46 the batteries as needed during the tenancy. Failure of the tenant to replace the 47 batteries as needed shall not be considered as negligence on the part of the 48 tenant or the landlord. A carbon monoxide alarm may be combined with smoke 49 alarms if the combined alarm does both of the following: (i) complies with 50 ANSI/UL2034 or ANSI/UL2075 for carbon monoxide alarms and 51 ANSI/UL217 for smoke alarms and (ii) emits an alarm in a manner that clearly

1 differentiates between detecting the presence of carbon monoxide and the 2 presence of smoke. This subdivision applies only to dwelling units having a 3 fossil-fuel burning heater, appliance, or fireplace and in any dwelling unit
4 having an attached garage. Any operable carbon monoxide detector installed
5 before January 1, 2015, shall be deemed to be in compliance with this 6 subdivision.

26 monoxide alarms.
27 (5) Verify that the landlord has annually placed new batteries in a battery-operated

32 shall not become personally liable as a party in any civil action between the landlord and tenant if 33 the real estate broker fails to identify the landlord of the property in the vacation rental agreement
