1 to all parties, including the defendant, and after hearing, may in its discretion order any or all of 2 the property returned to the lawful owner or a person, firm or corporation entitled to possession. 3 The court may enter such order as may be necessary to assure that the evidence will be available 4 for use as evidence at the time of trial, and will otherwise protect the rights of all parties. 5 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, photographs or other identification or analyses made 6 of the property may be introduced at the time of the trial provided that the court determines that 7 the introduction of such substitute evidence is not likely to substantially prejudice the rights of 8 the defendant in the criminal trial.

9 (b) In the case of unknown or unapprehended defendants or of defendants willfully absent 10 from the jurisdiction, the court shall determine whether an attorney should be appointed as 11 guardian ad litem to represent and protect the interest of such unknown or absent defendants. 12 Appointment shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the Office of Indigent Defense 13 Services. The judicial findings concerning identification or value that are made at such hearing 14 whereby property is returned to the lawful owner or a person, firm, or corporation entitled to possession, may be admissible into evidence at the trial. After final judgment all property 15 lawfully seized by or otherwise coming into the possession of law-enforcement authorities shall 16 17 be disposed of as the court or magistrate in its discretion orders, and may be forfeited and either 18 sold or destroyed in accordance with due process of law.

19 Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) of this section or any other provision of law, (b1)20 if the property seized is a firearm and the district attorney determines the firearm is no longer 21 necessary or useful as evidence in a criminal trial, the district attorney, after notice to all parties 22 known or believed by the district attorney to have an ownership or a possessory interest in the 23 firearm, including the defendant, shall apply to the court for an order of disposition of the firearm. 24 The judge, after hearing, may shall order the disposition of the firearm as provided in subdivision 25 (1) of this subsection unless the rightful owner is the defendant. If the rightful owner is the 26 defendant, then the judge may order the disposition of the firearm in one of the following 27 ways:ways described by subdivisions (2) through (4) of this subsection:

- 28 (1)By ordering the firearm returned to its rightful owner, when the rightful owner 29 is someone other than the defendant and upon findings by the court (i) that the 30 person, firm, or corporation determined by the court to be the rightful owner is entitled to possession of the firearm and (ii) that the person, firm, or 31 32 corporation determined by the court to be the rightful owner of the firearm 33 was unlawfully deprived of the same or had no knowledge or reasonable belief 34 of the defendant's intention to use the firearm unlawfully. 35
 - (2) By ordering the firearm returned to the defendant, but only if the defendant is not convicted of any criminal offense in connection with the possession or use of the firearm, the defendant is the rightful owner of the firearm, and the defendant is not otherwise ineligible to possess such firearm.
 - (3) By ordering the firearm turned over to be destroyed by the sheriff of the county in which the firearm was seized or by his duly authorized agent if the firearm does not have a legible, unique identification number or is unsafe for use because of wear, damage, age, or modification. The sheriff shall maintain a record of the destruction of the firearm.
- 44 By ordering the firearm turned over to a law enforcement agency in the county (4) 45 of trial for (i) the official use of the agency or (ii) sale, trade, or exchange by 46 the agency to a federally licensed firearm dealer in accordance with all 47 applicable State and federal firearm laws.
