GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2019

FILED SENATE Feb 28, 2019 S.J.R. 173 PRINCIPAL CLERK D

S

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION DRSJR35064-LG-51*

 having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		Sponsors: Senators Brown, D. Davis, and Sanderson (Primary Sponsors).
2JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.3Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was born on February 10, 1943, in Farmville, N4Carolina, to Walter B. Jones, Sr., and Doris Long Jones; and5Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., graduated from Hargrave Military Acaden6Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College7Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and8Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 19719after which time, began a career in business; and10Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his11having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous12Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a13a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and14Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou15Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992;16Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N17and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter18military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and19Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capac10tincluding as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the 1910Carolina Library Committe		Referred to:
2JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.3Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was born on February 10, 1943, in Farmville, N4Carolina, to Walter B. Jones, Sr., and Doris Long Jones; and5Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., graduated from Hargrave Military Acaden6Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College7Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and8Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 19719after which time, began a career in business; and10Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his11having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous12Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a13a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and14Whereas, Malter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou15Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992;16Whereas, Quargerssman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N17and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte18military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and19Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capac10including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the 110carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act
 Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was born on February 10, 1943, in Farmville, I Carolina, to Walter B. Jones, Jr., graduated from Hargrave Military Acaden Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 1971 after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Blind, I Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Carolina, to Walter B. Jones, Sr., and Doris Long Jones; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., graduated from Hargrave Military Acaden Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 1971 after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with 1 and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and W
 Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., graduated from Hargrave Military Acaden Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 1971 after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capac including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the P Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known fo		•
 Chatham, Virginia in 1961, and earned a bachelor's degree from Atlantic Christian College Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 1971 after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the I Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		\mathbf{U} 7Barton College) in Wilson, North Carolina in 1966; and8Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 19719after which time, began a career in business; and10Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his11having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous12Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a13a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and14Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou15Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992;16Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I17and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter18military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and19Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of P20Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act21passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set22together to save America's wildlife; and23Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace24including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Pitt Countie, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil26Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served in the National Guard from 1967 to 1971 after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with 1 and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capaa including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the II Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe after which time, began a career in business; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capac including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the I Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina Hous Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee a a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 	0	Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was an outstanding public servant throughout his life, a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporte military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the I Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 	1	having rendered distinguished service as a member of the North Carolina House of
 Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States Hou Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the I Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 	2	Representatives from 1983 to 1992, serving as chair of the Human Resources Committee and as Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with I and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the Blind, N Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 	3	a member of the Appropriations, Ethics, and Local Government Committees; and
 Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with F and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of F Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the P Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe. 	4	Whereas, in 1995, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was elected to the United States House of and distinction for 12 consecutive terms until 2019 and, during that time, actively supporter military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was resper admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		Representatives, following in the footsteps of his father, who retired from his seat in 1992; and military as a member of the Armed Services Committee; and Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the N Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., represented the citizens of the Third District with honor Whereas, Congressman Jones was a passionate defender of the wild horses of N Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private set together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the N Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respect admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe.
 Carolina's Outer Banks. His legislation, the Shackleford Banks Wild Horse Protection Act passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the N Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe. passed into law in 1998 and stands as a national model for bringing the public and private se together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the P Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe together to save America's wildlife; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the P Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., served his community and State in many capace including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the P Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe including as Director of the Pitt County Mental Health Association and as a member of the R Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, R Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		0
 Carolina Library Committee, Consumer and Advocacy Advisory Committee for the Blind, N Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 		• • • Carolina Council for Hearing Impaired, Governor's Advocacy Council on Youth and Chil and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe and the Foundation Board of the Eastern North Carolina Vocational Center; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respected admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a devout member of the Catholic faith; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respe- admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was well-known for his integrity and was respe- admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe admired, and loved by those who knew him and had the privilege to work with him; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., died on February 10, 2019, at the age of 76; and Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe 32 Whereas, Walter B. Jones, Jr., was a beloved husband to his wife of 53 years, Joe Whitehurst Jones, and a devoted father to his daughter, Ashley Elizabeth; Now, therefore,
B4 Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:
		SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the memory of Walter B. Jones, Jr., and expresses its appreciation and admiration for his life of service to the people of Eastern North Carolina, the State of North Carolina, and the United States.

	General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2019
1	SECTION 2. The General Assembly extends its deepest sympathy to the family of
2	Walter B. Jones, Jr., for the loss of a beloved family member.
3	SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this resolution
4	to the family of Walter B. Jones, Jr.
5	SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.