- (a) Any person transporting a dangerous wild animal shall keep the animal at all times in a species-appropriate cage or travel container and shall comply with federal transport requirements (9 C.F.R. Part 3).
- (b) Any person possessing a dangerous wild animal shall keep the animal in a permanent enclosure that is designed to be escape-proof and has an operable lock. It is unlawful for any person to allow members of the public within 15 feet of a dangerous wild animal unless there is a permanent barrier in place that prevents the risk of direct physical contact between a member of the public and the animal.
- (c) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly release a dangerous wild animal into the wild.

"§ 19A-76. Enforcement.

- (a) The provisions of this Article shall be enforced by any State law enforcement officer, or by any other law enforcement officer in whose jurisdiction a violation occurs, or by any animal control authority for the jurisdiction in which a violation occurs. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to prohibit a city or county from adopting or enforcing any ordinance or other law that places further restrictions or additional requirements on the possession, sale, transfer, or breeding of dangerous wild animals.
 - (b) Animals may be seized pursuant to this Article as follows:
 - Law enforcement officers shall, after obtaining a warrant from any judge or magistrate upon probable cause, seize or impound any dangerous wild animal possessed, sold, transferred, bred, or exhibited in violation of this Article. If the dangerous wild animal posses a direct threat to public safety or is suffering from apparent animal neglect or cruelty, that animal shall be immediately placed in the custody and control of an institution described in G.S. 19A-73(1), (3), (4), (5), or (9), or a temporary holding facility, as described in G.S. 19A-73(4). If there is no immediate threat to public safety or animal welfare, law enforcement officers shall impound the dangerous wild animal in place.
 - (2) Upon seizing or impounding a dangerous wild animal, a law enforcement officer shall petition the district court for the district in which the dangerous wild animal was seized or impounded for a hearing to determine whether the dangerous wild animal was in fact possessed, sold, transferred, bred, or exhibited in violation of this Article. The hearing shall be held not more than 14 days from the date of the seizure or impoundment, and the law enforcement officer shall provide written notice of the hearing at least five days prior to the hearing to the person from whom the dangerous wild animal was seized or impounded.
 - (3) Upon judicial determination of a violation of any provision of this Article, the seized or impounded dangerous wild animal shall be deemed forfeited and the court shall order the violator to pay all reasonable expenses incurred in caring and providing for the dangerous wild animal, from the time the dangerous wild animal is seized until the time that dangerous wild animal is forfeited, to an institution described in G.S. 19A-73(1), (3), (4), (5), or (9), or a temporary holding facility in possession of the dangerous wild animal. The court may also prohibit the possession or ownership of dangerous wild animals, or other nonnative wild animals, by the person found to have violated this Article.
 - (4) A forfeited dangerous wild animal shall be transferred to an institution described in G.S. 19A-73(1), (3), (4), (5), or (9) that is willing and able to take custody of the forfeited dangerous wild animal. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent law enforcement officers from humanely euthanizing a dangerous wild animal in compliance with State and federal law if, after reasonable efforts, no institution described in G.S. 19A-73(1), (3), (4), (5), or (9) is willing and able to provide long-term care for the dangerous wild animal.

 Nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent the voluntary, permanent relinquishment of any dangerous wild animal by its owner to a person legally able to possess the dangerous wild animal and willing and able to take possession. Voluntary relinquishment shall have no effect on any criminal charges for violations of this Article.

(c) Any dangerous wild animal found to be not properly confined, whether on the property of the owner or running at large, may be humanely destroyed by law enforcement officers in order to protect public safety. The owner of a dangerous wild animal will be liable for costs accrued to law enforcement officers in humanely destroying or otherwise securing that animal.

"§ 19A-77. Penalties.

(a) Each violation of this Article shall constitute a Class 2 misdemeanor and a person who violates this Article is liable for a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). Each animal possessed, sold, transferred, or bred in violation of this Article constitutes a separate offense.

 (b) Any dangerous wild animal owner or custodian whose act or omission in the care, control, or containment of that animal that results in the animal running loose or causing property damage shall constitute a Class A1 misdemeanor. If that act or omission resulting in a dangerous wild animal running loose results in serious bodily injury to any person, the owner of the animal shall be strictly liable and the offense is punishable as a Class I felony.

(c) Any person who lives in the county in which a dangerous wild animal is kept may bring a civil action against an owner or custodian of the dangerous wild animal to enjoin a violation of this Article."

SECTION 2. If any part of this Article is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part.

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2019, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.
