SENATE BILL DRS45427-LRa-155B*

Short Title: (Public) Front Line State Employee Hazard Pay/Funds. Senators Peterson and Garrett (Primary Sponsors). Sponsors: Referred to: A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT MANDATING HAZARD PAY FOR THE MANDATORY STATE EMPLOYEES ON THE FRONT LINE FIGHTING THE COVID-19 COMMUNICABLE DISEASE PANDEMIC AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS FOR THAT PURPOSE AND DIRECTING THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY THE PROVISION OF HAZARD PAY TO PRIVATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYEES IN THIS STATE. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Article 2 of Chapter 126 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: "§ 126-8.6. Mandatory State operations; mandatory employees; hazard pay requirements. Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section: Epidemic. – A disease occurring suddenly in a community, region, or country (1) in numbers clearly in excess of normal. This includes the occurrence of several cases of a disease associated with a common source. (2) High-risk employees. – Employees in a certain age group or who have serious underlying medical conditions and might be at higher risk for severe illness from a communicable disease as identified by the federal Centers for Communicable Diseases or the Division of Public Health of the North Carolina Department of Human Services. Isolation. – A control measure issued by a local health director or the State (3) Health Director under G.S. 130A-145 limiting the movement or action of persons or animals infected or reasonably suspected to be infected with a communicable disease or condition for the period of communicability to prevent the spread of the communicable disease or condition, as described in G.S. 130A-2(3a). Mandatory employee. – An employee with a permanent, probationary, or (4) time-limited appointment who is required to report to a designated work site (particularly when all other employees are restricted from coming into the workplace), other than their personal residence, and only for those specific dates and times that such onsite reporting is required during a public health emergency. Mandatory employees include, but are not limited to, employees in positions that directly impact: (i) public health and patient care, (ii) public safety, (iii) operation of critical infrastructure and facilities, (iv) operation and safety of sensitive research labs and ongoing care for research animals and the custody or care of persons or property for whom the State has a duty to

Based on an agency's operational needs, a supervisor may excuse a mandatory employee if they are a parent (or guardian) who is required to stay home with underage children because of the closure of a day care facility, public or private school, or elder care facility.

If operational needs change, a mandatory employee may be required to return to work, but only for documented compelling reasons that will not jeopardize the health and safety of the mandatory employee. Management's discretion or convenience is not a compelling reason when the employee has been advised by a health care provider to quarantine due to exposure to a communicable disease. The advice to quarantine must be documented and based upon the health care provider's belief that the employee has the communicable disease, may have been exposed to the communicable disease, or is particularly vulnerable to the communicable disease.

Each State agency shall maintain a list of mandatory employees by position, including current employee name and contact information. The agency head shall develop an alternative plan for personnel in case the designated personnel are unable to work. Alternative workers may include current employees who are not designated as mandatory but who possess the skills to fill in for mandatory employees, retirees, contract workers, or other temporary employees. Employees designated as mandatory personnel shall be notified of such designation and the requirement to report for, or remain at, work in emergency situations.

If mandatory personnel are required to remain at the work site for an extended period of time, the agency or university must provide adequate housing and food. If an employee remains on the employer's premises for 24 hours a day, the employee shall be eligible for extra hazard duty pay as appropriate and may be entitled to receive pay for all those hours depending on the situation. Employees shall have a normal night's sleep and ample eating time and this time is not considered as hours worked. At a minimum, the sleep allowance is for eight hours of sleep and the meal period is for three hours.

- (f) Hazard Pay/Compensatory Time. When an agency is closed or when management determines that only mandatory employees are required to report to a specific work site (particularly when all other employees are restricted from coming into the workplace), the mandatory employees shall be granted hazard pay of at least 1.5 or an equivalent ratio in compensatory time for hours worked onsite up to 40 hours in a work week. It is the agency head's discretion to determine any other appropriate compensation options based on the availability of funds, operational needs of the agency, and in consideration of the duties being performed. Compensatory time must be used within 24 months of it being awarded, or it will expire. Agencies shall make every effort to give employees the opportunity to take this time off. Compensatory time earned during a public health emergency is not paid out at expiration or upon separation and does not transfer to another State agency. This provision applies to all designated mandatory employees, both exempt and nonexempt, under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).
- (g) Discipline and Appeals. Individuals designated as mandatory employees may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, for willful failure to report for or remain at work. Each situation will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis to determine appropriate action. A mandatory employee may appeal the denial of an exemption, any disciplinary action under this section, or both, pursuant to G.S. 126-34.02.
- (h) Applicability. This section applies to all State employees, whether or not they are exempt or nonexempt from the provisions of this Chapter."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 126-8 reads as rewritten:

On December 31 of each year, any State employee who has vacation leave in excess of the allowed accumulation shall have that leave converted to sick
