GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2021

H.B. 838 May 4, 2021 HOUSE PRINCIPAL CLERK

HOUSE BILL DRH40481-LR-104

H

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19

2021

22

23

24

25

2627

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

a.

b.

c.

Short Title: (Public) Retail Workers' Bill of Rights. Representative Brockman. Sponsors: Referred to: A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ENACT THE RETAIL WORKERS' BILL OF RIGHTS TO ENSURE FAIR SCHEDULING AND TREATMENT OF RETAIL EMPLOYEES. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read: "Article 2B. "Retail Workers' Bill of Rights. "§ 95-25.30. Title. This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "Rights of Retail Workers' Act." "§ 95-25.31. Findings; purpose. Findings. – The General Assembly finds that: (a) Erratic and on-call scheduling practices have become pervasive in some retail (1) establishments, particularly in stores and restaurants and bars. Many employees working in retail establishments experience significant (2) fluctuations in their work hours from week to week and month to month. Many retail establishments use computer software that automatically (3) generates work schedules for their employees. The schedules generated by such software are frequently erratic and unpredictable and provide employees with minimal notice of their upcoming shifts. Many employees of retail establishments are impacted by unpredictable scheduling practices such as frequent and last-minute changes to their work schedules and use of "on-call" scheduling. Unpredictable scheduling practices and last-minute work schedule changes (4) cause workers who are already struggling with low wages to live in a constant state of insecurity about when they will work or how much they will earn on any given day. Unpredictable work scheduling practices are detrimental to employees and (5) their families because such practices:

finances and obtain economic security.

Lead to income instability, making it hard for employees to plan their

Create work-family conflicts that make it difficult for employees to Prevent part-time employees from pursuing educational opportunities or holding a second or third job that such workers may need to make ends meet. Women are more likely than men to work part-time and plan their child care, caregiving duties, and transportation.

D

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13 14

15

16 17

18

19

20

21 22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38 39

40

41

42

43

44 45

46

47

48

1

experience unpredictability in their work schedules. Employers sometimes treat part-time employees less favorably than full-time employees.

4 5

Purpose. – The purpose of this Article is to provide retail employees with more (b) predictable, stable work schedules that are essential to their ability to earn a living and ensure a healthy and decent life for themselves and their families, and to ensure that part-time employees in retail establishments are treated fairly and equally compared to their full-time counterparts.

"§ 95-25.32. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

- Commissioner. The North Carolina Commissioner of Labor. (1)
- (2) Department. – The North Carolina Department of Labor.
- (3) Employer. – Any person that owns or operates a retail establishment with 20 or more employees in the State, including corporate officers or executives. who directly or indirectly or through an agent or any other person, including through the service of a temporary services or staffing agency or similar entity, employs or exercises control over the wages, hours, or working conditions of any individual. For the purpose of calculating the 20-employee threshold referenced herein, employees performing work in other retail establishments in the State that are owned or operated under the same trade name by the same employer shall be counted. Notwithstanding the foregoing definition, "employer" does not include a nonprofit corporation or governmental entity.
- Full-time. Thirty-five or more hours of work in each workweek. (4)
- On-call shift. Any shift for which an employee must, less than 24 hours in (5) advance of the start of the shift, either contact the employer or wait to be contacted by the employer to learn whether the employer requires the employee to report to work for the shift.
- Part-time. Fewer than 35 hours of work in each workweek. (6)
- Retail establishment. An establishment engaged in any retail business, (7) including, but not limited to, department stores, grocery stores, and restaurants. The term also includes hotels and housekeeping and janitorial services.

"§ 95-25.33. Advance notice of work schedules and schedule changes.

- Initial Estimate of Minimum Hours. Prior to the start of employment: (a)
  - An employer shall provide a new employee with a good-faith estimate in (1) writing of the employee's expected minimum number of scheduled shifts per month and the days and hours of those shifts. The estimate shall not include on-call shifts. The estimate shall not constitute a contractual offer, and the employer shall not be bound by the estimate.
  - The employee may request that the employer modify the proposed work (2) schedule provided under subdivision (1) of this subsection. The employer shall consider any such request, and in its sole discretion may accept or reject the request, provided that the employer shall notify the employee of its determination prior to the start of employment.
- Two-Week Notice of Work Schedules. An employer shall provide its employees with at least two weeks' notice of their work schedules by doing one of the following at least every 14 days (on a "biweekly schedule"):
  - Posting the work schedule in a conspicuous place at the workplace that is (1) readily accessible and visible to all employees.
  - Transmitting the work schedule by electronic means, so long as all employees (2) are given access to the electronic schedule at the workplace. For new employees, an employer shall provide the new employee on his or her first day of employment with an initial work schedule that runs through the date that the next biweekly schedule for existing employees is scheduled to be posed or distributed; thereafter, the employer shall include the new employee in an existing biweekly schedule with other employees. For all employees, the work schedule shall include any on-call shifts, where applicable. If the employer changes the work schedule after it is posted or transmitted, the changes shall be subject to the notice and compensation requirements set forth in subsection (c) of this section.

49 50 51

> Page 2 DRH40481-LR-104

49 due t 50 the e

- (c) Notice and Compensation for Schedule Changes. An employer shall provide an employee notice of any change to the employee's schedule that has been posted or transmitted pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. The employer shall provide such notice by in-person conversation, telephone call, or email, text message, or other electronic communication. This notice requirement shall not apply to any schedule changes that the employee requests, such as employee-requested sick leave, time off, shift trades, or additional shifts.
- (d) Predictability Pay for Schedule Changes. Subject to the exceptions in subsection (f) of this section, an employer shall provide an employee with the following compensation per shift for each previously scheduled shift that the employer moves to another date or time or cancels, or each previously unscheduled shift that the employer requires the employee to come into work:
  - (1) With less than seven days' notice but 24 hours or more notice to the employee, one hour of pay at the employee's regular hourly rate;
  - (2) With less than 24 hours' notice to the employee, two hours of pay at the employee's regular hourly rate for each shift of four hours or less; and
  - (3) With less than 24 hours' notice to the employee, four hours of pay at the employee's regular hourly rate for each shift of more than four hours.

Where the employee is required to come into work, the compensation mandated by this subsection shall be in addition to the employee's regular pay for working that shift. This subsection does not apply to on-call shifts.

- (e) Pay for On-Call Shifts. Subject to the exceptions in subsection (f) of this section, an employer shall provide an employee with the following compensation for each on-call shift for which the employee is required to be available but is not called in to work:
  - (1) Two hours of pay at the employee's regular hourly rate for each on-call shift of four hours or less; and
  - (2) Four hours of pay at the employee's regular hourly rate for each on-call shift of more than four hours.

This subsection shall not apply when the employee is in fact called in for the on-call shift or the employer provides the employee with 24 hours' or more notice that the on-call shift has been cancelled or moved to another date or time.

- (f) Exceptions. The requirements in subsections (e) and (f) of this section do not apply under any of the following circumstances:
  - (1) Operations cannot begin or continue due to threats to employees or property, or when civil authorities recommend that work not begin or continue.
  - (2) Operations cannot begin or continue because public utilities fail to supply electricity, water, or gas, or there is a failure in the public utilities or sewer systems.
  - (3) Operations cannot begin or continue due to an act of God or other cause not within the employer's control, for example, an earthquake or a state of emergency declared by the Governor.
  - (4) Another employee previously scheduled to work that shift is unable to work due to illness, vacation, or employer-provided paid or unpaid time off where the employer did not receive at least seven days' notice of the absence.

DRH40481-LR-104 Page 3

- (5) Another employee previously scheduled to work that shift has not reported to work on time or is fired or sent home or told to stay home as a disciplinary action.
- (6) The employer requires the employee to work overtime (i.e., mandatory overtime).
- (7) The employee trades shifts with another employee or requests from the employer a change in shift, shifts, hours, or work schedule.
- (g) Greater Notice Permitted. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an employer from providing greater advance notice of employees' work schedules or changes in schedules than that required by this section.

"§ 95-25.34. Equal treatment for part-time employees.

- (a) Hourly Wage. Employers shall provide part-time employees with the same starting hourly wage as that provided to starting full-time employees who hold jobs that require equal skill, effort, and responsibility and that are performed under similar working conditions, provided that hourly pay differentials between part-time and full-time employees are permissible if such differentials are based on reasons other than the part-time status of the employee, such as a seniority system, merit system, or system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, performance, or responsibilities. This subsection does not affect the minimum hourly requirements for receipts of benefits, including, but not limited to, health care benefits.
- (b) Access to Time Off. Employers shall provide part-time employees with the same access to employer-provided paid and unpaid time off as that afforded to full-time employees for the same job classification. A part-time employee's eligibility for employer-provided paid or unpaid time off may be prorated based on the number of hours that the part-time employee works.
- (c) Eligibility for Promotions. Employers shall provide part-time employees with the same eligibility for promotions as that afforded to full-time employees for the same job classification, provided that an employer may condition eligibility for promotion on the employee's availability for full-time employment and on reasons other than the part-time status of the employee, such as nature and amount of work experience.

"§ 95-25.35. Notice of employee rights.

- (a) Notices. The Commissioner shall no later than the effective date of this Article, publish and make available to employers, in English, Spanish, and all languages spoken by more than five percent (5%) of the State's workforce, a notice suitable for posting by employers in the workplace informing applicants and employees of their rights under this Article. The Commissioner shall update this notice on December 1 of any year in which there is a change in the languages spoken by more than five percent (5%) of the State's workforce.
- (b) Posting. Employers shall post the notice described in subsection (a) of this section in a conspicuous place at every workplace, jobsite, or other location in the State under the employer's control that is frequently visited by its employees who perform work at the employer's retail establishment. The notice shall be posted in English, Spanish, and any language spoken by at least five percent (5%) of the employees at the workplace, jobsite, or other location at which it is posted.

"§ 95-25.36. Records; retention requirements.

- (a) Records. Employers shall retain work schedules and payroll records pertaining to employees for three years and shall allow the Department of Labor access to such records, with appropriate notice and during business hours, to monitor compliance with the requirements of this Article.
- (b) Access. The Commissioner and the Commissioner's designees shall have access to all places of labor subject to this Article during business hours to inspect books and records, interview employees, and investigate such matters necessary or appropriate to determine whether an employer has violated any provisions of this Article.

Page 4 DRH40481-LR-104

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50

51

(c) Presumption. – Where an employer does not maintain or retain adequate records documenting compliance with this Article or does not allow the Department reasonable access to such records, it shall be presumed that the employer did not comply with this Article, absent clear and convincing evidence otherwise.

"§ 95-25.37. Exercise of rights protected; retaliation prohibited.

- (a) Rights Protected. The rights of retail employees employed in this State include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - (1) The right to request a modification to the initial proposed work schedule.
  - (2) The right to inform any person about an employer's alleged violation of this Article.
  - (3) The right to file a complaint with the Department alleging a violation of this Article.
  - (4) The right to cooperate with the Department or other persons in the investigation or prosecution of any alleged violation of this Article.
  - (5) The right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Article.
  - (6) The right to inform any person of his or her rights under this Article.
- (b) Interference Unlawful. It is unlawful for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this Article.
- (c) No Adverse Action. It is unlawful for an employer to discharge, threaten to discharge, demote, suspend, or otherwise take adverse employment action against any employee in retaliation for exercising rights protected under this Article.

8 95-25.38. Investigation; enforcement.

- (a) Authority. The Commissioner shall take appropriate steps to enforce and coordinate enforcement of this Article, including the investigation of any possible violations of this Article.
  - (b) Determination of Violation and Penalties.
    - (1) Where the Commissioner has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, it may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation.
    - After investigating a possible violation of this Article, and providing the (2) employer the opportunity to respond to the allegations, if the Commissioner determines that a violation has occurred, it may issue a determination of violation. The determination of violation shall identify the violation and the factual basis for the determination. The Commissioner shall serve the determination of violation on the employer by U.S. mail, and the date of service shall be the date of mailing. In the determination of violation, the Commissioner may order any appropriate relief, including, but not limited to, requiring the employer to offer payment of lost wages to the employee or person whose rights under this Article were violated, and the payment of an additional sum as an administrative penalty in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) to each employee or person whose rights under this Article were violated for each day that the violation occurred or continued. To compensate the State for the costs of investigating and remedying the violation, the Commissioner may also order the violating employer to pay to the State an amount that does not exceed its enforcement costs.
- (c) Appeal Procedure. An employer may appeal from a determination of violation in accordance with the following procedures:
  - (1) Any appeal shall be filed in writing by the party filing the appeal within 15 days of the date of service of the determination of violation. The appellant shall file the appeal with the North Carolina Office of Administrative Hearings

DRH40481-LR-104 Page 5

"§ 95-25.39. No limitation of other rights and remedies; severability.

47

48

49

50

(a) No Limitation. – This Article does not in any way limit the rights and remedies that the law otherwise provides to employees, including, but not limited to, the rights to be free from wrongful termination and unlawful discrimination.

Page 6 DRH40481-LR-104

- 1 2 3
- (b) Severability. If any portion of this Article, or any application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, that decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions or applications of the Article.
- 4 5 6
- (c) No Conflict of Law. Nothing in this Article shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any right, requirement, power, or duty in conflict with any federal or State law."

7 SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2022.

DRH40481-LR-104 Page 7