of creditable service, may apply as provided in G.S. 7A-53 to become emergency judges of the 1 2 court from which they retired. From the commissioned emergency district, superior, and special 3 superior court judges, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall create two lists of active 4 emergency judges and two lists of inactive emergency judges. For emergency superior and 5 special superior court judges, the active list shall be limited to a combined total of 10 emergency 6 judges; all other emergency superior and special superior court judges shall be on an inactive list. 7 For emergency district court judges, the active list shall be limited to 25-30 emergency judges; 8 all other emergency district court judges shall be on an inactive list. There is no limit to the 9 number of emergency judges on either inactive list. In the Chief Justice's discretion, emergency 10 judges may be added or removed from their respective active and inactive lists, as long as the respective numerical limits on the active lists are observed. The Chief Justice is requested to 11 12 consider geographical distribution in assigning emergency judges to an active list but may utilize 13 any factor in determining which emergency judges are assigned to an active list. The Chief Justice 14 of the Supreme Court may order any emergency district, superior, or special superior court judge 15 on an active list who, in his opinion, is competent to perform the duties of a judge, to hold regular or special sessions of the court from which the judge retired, as needed. Order of assignment 16 17 shall be in writing and entered upon the minutes of the court to which such emergency judge is 18 assigned. An emergency judge shall only be assigned in the event of a:
