16 may bring a civil action to enforce rights granted or protected by this Chapter against any person,
17 covered governmental entity, employer, employment agency, or labor organization that is alleged 18 to have committed such practices or engaged in such conduct. The action shall be commenced in 19 superior court in the county where the alleged discriminatory practice or prohibited conduct
20 occurred or where the plaintiff or defendant resides. Such action shall be tried to the court without 21 a jury.

22 (b) In a civil action brought to enforce provisions of this Chapter, the court may award
23 declaratory or injunctive relief and back pay. Any such back pay liability shall not accrue from a
24 date more than three years prior to the filing of an action under this Chapter.

25 (c) In any civil action brought under this Chapter, the court, in its discretion, may award
26 reasonable attorneys' fees to the substantially prevailing party as part of costs.

27 "§ 168B-9. Statute of limitations.

28 A civil action brought pursuant to this Chapter shall be commenced within three years after 29 the date on which the aggrieved person became aware of or, with reasonable diligence, should 30 have become aware of the alleged discriminatory practice or prohibited conduct.

31 "§ 168B-10. Construction of Chapter.

32 Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to preempt, limit, diminish, or otherwise affect 33 another provision of federal, State, or local law, or to invalidate or limit the remedies, rights, and 34 procedures of a federal, State, or local law that provides greater or equal protection for an 35 employee affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or a related condition."

36 SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2021, and applies to any act or 37 omission occurring on or after that date.
