	1993 GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
1	(13) To do all other things necessary or appropriate to carry out its purposes
2	as provided in this Article.
3	" § 158-38. Fiscal accountability.
4	The Zone is a public authority subject to the provisions of Chapter 159 of the 5	General Statutes.
6	" § 158-39. Funds.
7	The establishment and operation of the Zone are governmental functions and
8	constitute a public purpose. The State of North Carolina and any unit of local
9	government may appropriate or otherwise provide funds to support the establishment
10	and operation of the Zone. The State of North Carolina and any unit of local 11	government may also dedicate, sell, convey, donate, or lease any of their interests in
12	property to the Zone. The Zone may apply for grants from the State of North Carolina,
13	the United States, or any department, agency, or instrumentality of the State or the 14	United States. Any department of State government may allocate to the Zone any funds
15	the use of which is not restricted by law.
16 17	" § 158-40. Tax exemption. The property of the Zone, its activities, and its income are exempt from tax. This tax
17	exemption does not apply to the lease, or other arrangement that amounts to a leasehold
18 19	interest, of Zone property to a private party, or to the income of the lessee, unless the
20	property is leased solely for the purpose of the Zone, in which case the activities of the 20	lessee are considered the activities of the Zone.
22	" § 158-41. Withdrawal; termination.
23	(a) Withdrawal. – A county participating in the Zone may, by resolution,
24	withdraw from the Zone. A resolution withdrawing from the Zone may not become
25	effective before the end of the fiscal year in which it is adopted. Upon adoption of a
26	resolution withdrawing from the Zone, the board of commissioners of the county shall
27	provide a copy of the resolution to the Secretary of State, the Commission, the 28	Authority, and every other county participating in the Zone. Withdrawal does not
29	entitle a county to early distribution of its beneficial interest in Zone assets, but a county
30	that has withdrawn retains its right to any distributions that may be made to
31	participating counties on the same basis as if it had not withdrawn.
32	(b) Termination. – The Commission may dissolve the Zone and terminate its
33	existence at any time. If the Zone is dissolved and terminated or is otherwise unable to 34	expend the tax proceeds received pursuant to G.S. 158-42, the Commission shall
35	liquidate the assets of the Zone to the extent possible and distribute all Zone assets to
36	the counties of the Zone in proportion to the amount of tax collected in each county. In
37	calculating the amount to be refunded to each county, the Zone shall first allocate
38	amounts loaned and not yet repaid as follows:
39 40	(1) Amounts loaned for a project in a county will be allocated to that
40 41	county to the extent of its beneficial ownership of the principal of the trust account created under G.S. 158,42 and the county will become
41 42	trust account created under G.S. 158-42 and the county will become the owner of the right to repayment of the amount loaned to the extent
42 43	of its beneficial ownership of the principal of the trust account created
45	or its ochericial ownership of the principal of the trust account created

44 under G.S. 158-42.

1	(2) Amounts not allocated pursuant to subdivision (1) shall be allocated
2	among the remaining counties in proportion to the amount of tax
3	collected in each county under G.S. 158-42, and the remaining
4	counties shall become the owners of the right to repayment of the
5	amounts loaned in proportion to the amount of tax collected in each
6	county under G.S. 158-42.
7	Notes and other instruments representing the right to repayment shall, upon
8 9	dissolution of the Zone, be held and collected by the State Treasurer, who shall disburse the collections to the counties as provided in this subsection.
9 10	The Commission shall distribute those assets that it is unable to liquidate among the
10	Zone counties insofar as practical on an equitable basis, as determined by the 12	Commission . Upon termination, the State of North Carolina shall succeed to any
12	remaining rights, obligations, and liabilities of the Zone not assigned to the Zone
14	counties.
15	"§ 158-42. Temporary Zone sales and use tax.
16	(a) Zone May Levy Tax. – The Zone may levy a one percent (1%) local sales and
17	use tax in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes levied pursuant to
18	law. Except as provided in this section, the adoption, levy, collection, distribution,
19	administration, and repeal of the tax shall be in accordance with Article 39 of Chapter
20	105 of the General Statutes. In applying the provisions of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of
21	the General Statutes to this section, references to 'this Article' mean G.S. 158-42,
22	references to a county mean the Zone, and references to a board of county
23	commissioners mean the Commission.
24	(b) Procedure for Levy. – G.S. 105-465 and G.S. 105-466(a) do not apply to this
25	section. The public hearing on the levy of the tax must be held on or before August 11,
26	1993. A resolution levying the tax authorized by this section must be adopted on or
27	before August 18, 1993.
28	(c) Effective Dates of Tax. – A tax levied under this section shall become
29	effective October 1, 1993, and shall expire March 31, 1994. The expiration of the tax
30	does not affect the rights or liabilities of the Zone, a taxpayer, or another person arising
31	under this section before the expiration of the tax; nor does it affect the right to any
32	refund or credit of a tax that would otherwise have been available under this section
33	before the expiration of the tax.
34	(d) Distribution of Tax Proceeds. – The Secretary of Revenue shall, on a
35	quarterly basis, distribute the net proceeds of the tax levied under this section to the 36	Zone. The Secretary of Revenue shall provide the Zone with an accounting of the 37	percentage of proceeds collected in each county of the Zone in each quarter.
