(a) Appeals involving a disciplinary action, alleged discrimination, and any other contested case arising under this Chapter shall be conducted in the Office of Administrative Hearings as provided in Article 3 of Chapter 150B; provided that no grievance may be appealed unless the employee has complied with G.S. 126-34. The State Personnel Commission shall make a final decision in these cases as provided in G.S. ~~150B-36-150B-36~~, except as provided in subsection (b1) of this section. The State Personnel Commission is hereby authorized to reinstate any employee to the position from which he has been removed, to order the employment, promotion, transfer, or salary adjustment of any individual to whom it has been wrongfully denied or to direct other suitable action to correct the abuse which may include the requirement of payment for any loss of salary which has resulted from the improperly discriminatory action of the appointing authority. ~~The decisions of the State Personnel Commission shall be binding in appeals of local employees subject to this Chapter if the Commission finds that the employee~~

1 has been subjected to discrimination prohibited by Article 6 of this Chapter or in any case
2 where a binding decision is required by applicable federal standards. However, in all other 3 local employee appeals, the decisions of the State Personnel Commission shall be advisory to 4 the local appointing authority.

5 (b) ~~An action brought in superior court by an employee who is dissatisfied with 6 an advisory decision of the State Personnel Commission or with the action taken by the 7 local appointing authority pursuant to the decision shall be heard upon the record and 8 not as a trial de novo. In such an action brought by a local employee under this section, 9 the defendant shall be the local appointing authority. If superior court affirms the 10 decision of the Commission, the decision of superior court shall be binding on the local 11 appointing authority.~~

12 (b1) In appeals involving local government employees subject to this Chapter 13 pursuant to G.S. 126-5(a)(2), except in appeals in which discrimination prohibited by 14 Article 6 of this Chapter is found or in any case where a binding decision is required by 15 applicable federal standards, the decision of the State Personnel Commission shall be 16 advisory to the local appointing authority. The State Personnel Commission shall 17 comply with all requirements of G.S. 150B-44 in making an advisory decision. The 18 local appointing authority shall, within 90 days of receipt of the advisory decision of the 19 State Personnel Commission, issue a written, final decision either accepting, rejecting, 20 or modifying the decision of the State Personnel Commission. If the local appointing 21 authority rejects or modifies the advisory decision, the local appointing authority must 22 state the specific reasons why it did not adopt the advisory decision. A copy of the final 23 decision shall be served on each party personally or by certified mail, and on each 24 party's attorney of record.

25 (b2) The final decision is subject to judicial review pursuant to Article 4 of 26 Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. Appeals in which it is found that discrimination
27 prohibited by Article 6 of this Chapter has occurred or in any case where a binding 28 decision is required by applicable federal standards shall be heard as all other appeals, 29 except that the decision of the State Personnel Commission shall be final.

30 (c) If the local appointing authority is other than a board of county 31 commissioners, the ~~employee~~ local appointing authority must give the county notice of 32 the appeal taken pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Notice must be given to the 33 county manager or the chairman of the board of county commissioners by certified mail 34 within 15 days of the ~~filing receipt~~ of the notice of appeal. The county may intervene in 35 the appeal within 30 days of receipt of the notice. If the action is appealed to superior 36 court the county may intervene in the superior court proceeding even if it has not 37 intervened in the administrative proceeding. The decision of the superior court shall be 38 binding on the county even if the county does not intervene."
