1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE WORKING PEOPLE OF THE TOWN
2 OF CANTON ON THE OCCASION OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH 3 ANNIVERSARY OF THE TOWN'S LABOR DAY OBSERVANCE.

4 Whereas, the Town of Canton, formerly known as Buford and later Pigeon
5 River, can trace its origins to a post office established in 1837 and a stop on the Western 6 Turnpike during the 1850s; and

7 Whereas, Canton's growth has been intricately linked with the growth and 8 development of its mill industry over the decades; and

9 Whereas, by the early 20th century, Canton had staked its claim as a 10 distinctive manufacturing town in rural Western North Carolina; and

11 Whereas, the Champion Paper Fibre Company mill complex was constructed 12 in 1906 and began production in 1908; and

13 Whereas, Reuben B. Robertson worked for Champion Paper Fibre Company 14 in many capacities for more than 50 years, serving as the general manager, president, 15 and chair of the board, and as honorary chair for Champion Papers, Inc., from 1961 to 16 his death in 1972; and

17 Whereas, upon Champion Paper Company's decision to close the plant in 18 1997, the employees of Champion organized themselves and purchased the plant to 19 form Blue Ridge Paper Company; and

20 Whereas, in September of 2004, Canton was struck with two massive and 21 destructive flooding events in a short two-week period, seeing more than $90 million in 22 damages, which has resulted in an intensive rebuilding and redevelopment phase for the 23 past two years; and

24 Whereas, Labor Day is a creation of the labor movement and is dedicated to 25 the social and economic achievements of American workers and constitutes a yearly 26 national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and 27 well-being of our country; and

28 Whereas, Canton is widely known for its Labor Day celebrations and 29 festivities, which began 100 years ago as a way to promote community spirit between 30 the mill and residents of the town; and

1 Whereas, Canton's 2006 Labor Day celebration will dually serve as an 2 important anniversary in commemoration of the Town's working people as well as a 3 presentation of the newly renovated and restored Town facilities; Now, therefore,

4 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:
