Short Title: Textbooks Selected at the Local Level. (Public)

Sponsors: Senator Brock.

Referred to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE TEXTBOOK SELECTION A LOCAL DECISION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 115C-85 through G.S. 115C-95 and G.S. 115C-97 are repealed.

SECTION 2. G.S. 115C-96 reads as rewritten:

"§ 115C-96. ~~Powers and duties of the State Board of Education in regard to textbooks.~~ State funds for textbooks.

The children of the public elementary and secondary schools of the State shall be provided with free basic textbooks within the appropriation of the General Assembly for that purpose. To implement this directive, the State Board of Education shall evaluate annually the amount of money necessary to provide textbooks based on the actual cost and availability of textbooks and shall request sufficient appropriations from the General Assembly.

~~The State Board of Education shall administer a fund and establish rules and regulations necessary to:~~

- ~~(1) Acquire by contract such basic textbooks as are or may be on the adopted list of the State of North Carolina which the Board finds necessary to meet the needs of the State public school system and to carry out the provisions of this Part.~~
- ~~(2) Provide a system of distribution of these textbooks and distribute the books that are provided without using any depository or warehouse facilities other than those operated by the State Board of Education.~~
- ~~(3) Provide for the free use, with proper care and return, of elementary and secondary basic textbooks. The title of said books shall be vested in the State."~~

11 procurement of supplementary textbooks, library books, periodicals, audiovisual
12 materials, and other supplementary instructional materials needed for instructional
13 purposes in the public schools of their units.

14 Local boards of education shall have sole authority to select and procure
15 supplementary instructional materials, whether or not the materials contain commercial
16 advertising, to determine if the materials are related to and within the limits of the 17 prescribed curriculum, and to determine when the materials may be presented to 18 students during the school day. Supplementary materials and contracts for 19 supplementary materials are not subject to approval by the State Board of Education.
20 Supplementary books and other instructional materials shall neither displace nor be used
21 to the exclusion of basic textbooks.

22 (b1) A local board of education may establish a community media advisory
23 committee to investigate and evaluate challenges from parents, teachers, and members
24 of the public to textbooks and supplementary instructional materials on the grounds that
25 they are educationally unsuitable, pervasively vulgar, or inappropriate to the age,
26 maturity, or grade level of the students. ~~The State Board of Education shall review its~~
27 ~~rules and policies concerning these challenges and shall establish guidelines to be~~
28 ~~followed by community media advisory committees.~~

29 The local board, at all times, has sole authority and discretion to determine whether a
30 challenge has merit and whether challenged material should be retained or removed.

31 (b2) ~~Local boards of education may:~~

- 32 (1) ~~Select, procure, and use textbooks that have not been adopted by the~~
33 ~~State Board of Education for use throughout the local school~~
34 ~~administrative unit for selected grade levels and courses; and~~
35 (2) ~~Approve school improvement plans developed under~~
36 ~~G.S. 115C-105.27 that include provisions for using textbooks that have~~
37 ~~not been adopted by the State Board of Education for selected grade~~
38 ~~levels and courses.~~

39 All textbook contracts made under this ~~subsection~~ section shall include a clause
40 granting to the local board of education the license to produce ~~braille, Braille, large~~
41 ~~print, and audiocassette tape copies of the textbooks for use in the local school~~
42 ~~administrative unit.~~

1 (b3) Local boards of education shall provide for the free use, with proper care and
2 return, of textbooks. The title of textbooks shall be vested in the local board of 3 education.

4 (c) Funds allocated by the State Board of Education or appropriated in the 5 current expense or capital outlay budgets of the local school administrative units, may
6 be used for the above-stated purposes."

1 "(d) Voting. – No voting by proxy shall be permitted. ~~Except in voting on~~
2 ~~textbook adoptions, all~~ All voting shall be viva voce unless a record vote or secret ballot
3 is demanded by any member, and a majority of those present and voting shall be
4 necessary to carry a motion."

5 SECTION 8. G.S. 115C-11(e) is repealed.

6 SECTION 9. G.S. 115C-12(9) and (9a) read as rewritten:

7 "§ 115C-12. Powers and duties of the Board generally.

8 The general supervision and administration of the free public school system shall be
9 vested in the State Board of Education. The State Board of Education shall establish
10 policy for the system of free public schools, subject to laws enacted by the General
11 Assembly. The powers and duties of the State Board of Education are defined as 12 follows:

13 ...

14 (9) Miscellaneous Powers and Duties. – All the powers and duties
15 exercised by the State Board of Education shall be in conformity with
16 the Constitution and subject to such laws as may be enacted from time
17 to time by the General Assembly. Among such duties are:

18 ...

19 ~~b. To adopt and supply textbooks.~~

20 ...

21 (9a) Power to Develop Content Standards. – The Board shall develop a
22 comprehensive plan to revise content standards and the standard
23 course of study in the core academic areas of reading, writing,
24 mathematics, science, history, geography, and civics. The Board shall 25 involve and survey a representative sample of parents, teachers, and 26 the public to help determine academic content standard priorities and 27 usefulness of the content standards. A full review of available and 28 relevant academic content standards that are rigorous, specific,
29 sequenced, clear, focused, and measurable, whenever possible, shall be
30 a part of the process of the development of content standards. The 31 revised content standards developed in the core academic areas shall 32 (i) reflect high expectations for students and an in-depth mastery of the 33 content; (ii) be clearly grounded in the content of each academic area;
34 (iii) be defined grade-by-grade and course-by-course; (iv) be
35 understandable to parents and teachers; (v) be developed in full
36 recognition of the time available to teach the core academic areas at
37 each grade level; and (vi) be measurable, whenever possible, in a
38 reliable, valid, and efficient manner for accountability purposes.

39 High school course content standards shall include the knowledge
40 and skills necessary to enter the workforce and also shall be aligned
41 with the coursework required for admission to the constituent
42 institutions of The University of North Carolina. The Board shall 43 develop and implement a plan for end-of-course tests for the minimum

1 courses required for admission to the constituent institutions. All
2 end-of-course tests shall be aligned with the content standards.

3 The Board also shall develop and implement an ongoing process to
4 align State programs and support materials with the revised academic
5 content standards for each core academic area on a regular basis.
6 Alignment shall include revising ~~textbook criteria~~, support materials,
7 State tests, teacher and school administrator preparation, and ongoing
8 professional development programs to be compatible with content
9 standards. The Board shall develop and make available to teachers and 10 parents support materials, including teacher and parent guides, for 11 academic content standards. The State Board of Education shall work
12 in collaboration with the Board of Governors of The University of
13 North Carolina to ensure that teacher and school administrator degree
14 programs, ongoing professional development and other university
15 activity in the State's public schools align with the State Board's 16 priorities.
