GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2013

S

SENATE BILL 626

Agriculture/Environment/Natural Resources Committee Substitute Adopted 5/9/13

Short Title: Recodify Animal Shelter Law.

(Public)

2

Sponsors:

Referred to:

April 4, 2013

1	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2	AN ACT TO RECODIFY AND AMEND THE EXISTING LAW ENACTED TO ASSIST
3	OWNERS IN RECOVERING LOST PETS, RELIEVE OVERCROWDING AT ANIMAL
4	SHELTERS, FACILITATE ADOPTIONS FROM ANIMAL SHELTERS, AND TO
5	PROVIDE FOR IMPROVED ENFORCEMENT OF THAT LAW BY MAKING IT PART
6	OF THE ANIMAL WELFARE ACT.
7	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
8	SECTION 1. G.S. 19A-23 is amended by redesignating subdivision (5a) as
9	subdivision (5c) and by adding two new subdivisions to read:
10	"(5a) "Approved foster care provider" mean an individual, nonprofit corporation,
11	or association that cares for stray animals that has been favorably assessed
12	by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of written
13	standards.
14	(5b) "Approved rescue organization" means a nonprofit corporation or
15	association that cares for stray animals that has been favorably assessed by
16	the operator of the animal shelter through the application of written
17	standards."
18	SECTION 2. Chapter 19A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new
19	section to read:
20	" § 19A-32.1. Minimum holding period for animals in animal shelters; public viewing of
21	animals in animal shelters; disposition of animals.
22 23	(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all animals received by an animal shalter or by or exert of an animal shalter shall be held for a minimum helding period of 06
	shelter or by an agent of an animal shelter shall be held for a minimum holding period of 96 hours. An animal shelter are a grant of an animal shelter may hold an animal for a minimum 24	hours. An animal shelter or an agent of an animal shelter may hold an animal for a minimum
25 26	holding period of 72 hours if the animal shelter posts at least one photograph depicting the head
20 27	and face of the animal on the animal shelter's Web site or on any other Web site designed to facilitate the adoption of animals and the photograph remains on the Web site until the animal
27	is euthanized or otherwise disposed of. An animal shelter or an agent of an animal shelter may
28 29	hold an animal for any longer minimum period established by a board of county
30	commissioners, prior to being euthanized or otherwise disposed of.
31	(b) Before an animal may be euthanized or otherwise disposed of, it shall be made
32	available for adoption under procedures that enable members of the public to inspect the
33	animal, except in the following cases:
34	(1) The animal has been found by the operator of the shelter to be unadoptable
35	due to injury or defects of health or temperament.

	General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2	2013
1	(2) The animal is seriously ill or injured, in which case the animal may	y be
2	euthanized before the expiration of the minimum holding period if
3	manager of the animal shelter determines, in writing, that it is appropria	te to
4	do so. The writing shall include the reason for the determination.
5	(3) The animal is being held as evidence in a pending criminal case.
6	(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a person who comes to an an	imal
7	shelter attempting to locate a lost pet is entitled to view every animal held at the shelter, sub	oject
8	to rules providing for such viewing during at least four hours a day, three days a week. It
9	shelter is housing animals that must be kept apart from the general public for health reas
10	public safety concerns, or in order to preserve evidence for criminal proceedings, the sh
11	shall make reasonable arrangements that allow pet owners to determine whether their lost	pets
12	are among those animals.
13	(d) During the minimum holding period, an animal shelter may place an animal
14	holding into foster care by transferring possession of the animal to an approved foster
15	provider, an approved rescue organization, or the person who found the animal. If an an
16	shelter transfers possession of an animal under this subsection, at least one photog	-
17	depicting the head and face of the animal shall be displayed at the shelter in a conspicu
18	location that is available to the general public during hours of operation, and that photog	-
19 20	shall remain posted until the animal is disposed of as provided in subsection (f) of this section (g)
20 21	(e) If a shelter places an animal in foster care, the shelter may, in writing, appoint
21	person or organization possessing the animal to be an agent of the shelter. After the expiration of the minimum holding period, the shelter may (i) direct the agent possessing the animal to be an agent of the agent possessing the animal to be an agent of the shelter.
22	return it to the shelter, (ii) allow the agent to adopt the animal consistent with the shelt
23 24	adoption policies, or (iii) extend the period of time that the agent holds the animal on beha
24 25	the shelter. A shelter may terminate an agency created under this subsection at any time
25 26	directing the agent to deliver the animal to the shelter. The local government or organiza	-
20 27	operating the shelter, as principal in the agency relationship, shall not be liable to reimburse
28	agent for the costs of care of the animal and shall not be liable to the owner of the animal
29	harm to the animal caused by the agent, absent a written contract providing otherwise.
30	(f) An animal that is surrendered to an animal shelter by the animal's owner and	not
31	reclaimed by that owner during the minimum holding period may be disposed of in one of
32	following manners:
33	(1) Returned to the owner.
34	(2) Adopted as a pet by a new owner.
35	(3) Euthanized by a procedure approved by rules adopted by the Department	it of
36	Agriculture and Consumer Services or, in the absence of such rules,
37	procedure approved by the American Veterinary Medical Association,	the 38	Humane Society of the United States, or the American Humane Associat	ion.
39	(g) An animal that is surrendered to an animal shelter by the animal's owner may
40	disposed of before the expiration of the minimum holding period in a manner authorized u
41	subsection (f) of this section if the owner provides to the shelter (i) some proof of ownership
42	the animal and (ii) a signed written consent to the disposition of the animal before	the
43	expiration of the minimum holding period.
44	(h) If the owner of a dog surrenders the dog to an animal shelter, the owner shall sta
45	writing whether the dog has bitten any individual within the 10 days preceding the dat	e of
46	surrender.	. ب ا
47 49	(i) An animal shelter shall require every person to whom an animal is release
48 40	present one of the following valid forms of government-issued photographic identification:
49 50	drivers license, (ii) a special identification card issued under G.S. 20-37.7, (iii) a mil- identification card or (iv) a passport. Upon presentation of the required photogra
50	identification card, or (iv) a passport. Upon presentation of the required photogra	pine

General Assembly Of North Carolina

identification, the shelter shall document the name of the person, the type of photographic 1 2 identification presented by the person, and the photographic identification number. 3 Animal shelters shall maintain a record of all animals impounded at the shelter, shall (i) 4 retain those records for a period of at least three years from the date of impoundment, and shall make those records available for inspection during regular inspections pursuant to this Article 5 6 or upon the request of a representative of the Animal Welfare Section. These records shall 7 contain, at a minimum: 8 (1)The date of impoundment. 9 The length of impoundment. (2) 10 The disposition of each animal, including the name and address of any (3) 11 person to whom the animal is released, any institution that person represents, and the identifying information required under subsection (i) of this section. 12 13 Other information required by rules adopted by the Board of Agriculture." (4) SECTION 3. G.S. 130A-192 reads as rewritten: 14 15 "§ 130A-192. Animals not wearing required rabies vaccination tags. 16 The Animal Control Officer shall canvass the county to determine if there are any (a) 17 animals not wearing the required rabies vaccination tag. If an animal required to wear a tag is 18 found not wearing one, the Animal Control Officer shall check to see if the owner's 19 identification can be found on the animal. If the animal is wearing an owner identification tag 20 with information enabling the owner of the animal to be contacted, or if the Animal Control 21 Officer otherwise knows who the owner is, the Animal Control Officer shall notify the owner 22 in writing to have the animal vaccinated against rabies and to produce the required rabies 23 vaccination certificate to the Animal Control Officer within three days of the notification. If the 24 animal is not wearing an owner identification tag and the Animal Control Officer does not 25 otherwise know who the owner is, the Animal Control Officer may impound the animal. The 26 duration of the impoundment of these animals shall be established by the county board of commissioners, but the duration shall not be less than 72 hours. During the impoundment 27 28 period, the Animal Control Officer shall make a reasonable effort to locate the owner of the 29 animal. If the Animal Control Officer has access at no cost or at a reasonable cost to a 30 microchip scanning device, the Animal Control Officer may shall scan the animal and utilize 31 any information that may be available through a microchip to locate the owner of the animal, if 32 possible. If the animal is not reclaimed by its owner during the impoundment period, the animal 33 shall be disposed of in one of the following manners: returned to the owner; adopted as a pet by 34 a new owner; sold to institutions within this State registered by the United States Department of 35 Agriculture pursuant to the Federal Animal Welfare Act, as amended; or put to death by a 36 procedure approved by rules adopted by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services 37 or, in the absence of such rules, by a procedure approved by the American Veterinary Medical 38 Association, the Humane Society of the United States or of the American Humane Association. 39 Before an animal may be put to death, it shall be made available for adoption under (a1) 40 procedures that enable members of the public to inspect the animal, except in cases in which 41 the animal is found by the operator of the shelter to be unadoptable due to injury or defects of 42 health or temperament. An animal that is seriously ill or injured may be euthanized if the 43 manager of the animal shelter determines, in writing, that it is appropriate to do so. Nothing in 44 this subsection shall supercede (i) any rules adopted by the Board of Agriculture which specify 45 the number of animals allowed for kennel space in animal shelters, or (ii) the duration of impoundment established by the county board of commissioners, or the 72-hour holding period, 46 47 as provided in subsection (a) of this section. as provided in G.S. 19A-32.1. 48 Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a person who comes to an animal (a2) 49 shelter attempting to locate a lost pet is entitled to view every animal held at the shelter, subject 50 to rules providing for such viewing during at least four hours a day, three days a week. If the shelter is housing animals that must be kept apart from the general public for health reasons,

51

	Assem	bly Of North Carolina Session 201
-	te reasc	ncerns, or in order to preserve evidence for criminal proceedings, the shelte nable arrangements that allow pet owners to determine whether their lost pet animals.
(a3)	0	Animal Control Officer shall maintain a record of all animals impounded unde
· · ·		ch shall include the date of impoundment, the length of impoundment, th sal of the animal and the name of the person or institution to whom any anima has been i	-
-	s of su	dition to domesticated dogs and cats not wearing the required rabies tags, the bsection (a) of this section concerning the holding of animals for at least 7
	-	ermissible means of disposition of animals after expiration of that holding period als		to all of the following:
	(1)	Dogs and cats that are wearing rabies tags but are taken into custody fo violation of statutes or ordinances not related to rabies control, such a ordinances requiring the leashing or restraining of dogs and cats.
	(2)	Dogs and cats surrendered to an animal shelter by the owners of the animals unless an owner provides to the shelter the following:
		a. Some proof of ownership of the animal, and
		b. A signed written consent to the disposition of the animal, in a manne authorized by this section, before the expiration of the 72-hou holding period or of a longer period established by ordinance or loca rule to which the shelter is subject.
(c)	If on	animal is not wearing tags, or other mode of identification indicating its owner to an animal shelter by (i) a person who has found and captured the animal, o · · · ·		red rescue organization that received the animal from a person who found and captured	the ani	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu captured organizati	the ani ion to t	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve captured organizati rescue org	the ani ion to t ganizat	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve- ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o captured organizati rescue org	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o .
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o b. If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o s. If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shal hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to th
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o b. If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shal hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to th shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then th
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o f. If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to th shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then th holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and th
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards (1)	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shal hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to th shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then th holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and th person or organization receiving the animal.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application o the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shal hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may:
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards (1)	mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescu- be the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to th shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then th holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and th person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards (1)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescure the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of. If the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that hold it as agent, or
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards (1)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescure the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, the finder or or organization shall holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that hold it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurpt the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72-hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to t ganizat een fav andards (1)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescupte the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurbe the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approvention" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that hold it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurse the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approvention" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurbe the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approvention" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that hold it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurse the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shal hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter. A shelter may terminate an agency created under this subsection at any tim by directing the finder or rescue organization to the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescurse the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approvention" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescue to the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization holds the animal as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter. A shelter may terminate an agency created under this subsection at any time by directing the finder or rescue organization to the shelter.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2) (2)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescue the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approve ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization that has held it as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter. A shelter may terminate an agency created under this subsection at any time by directing the finder or rescue organization to the shelter. The eity, county, or organization operating the animal shelter, as principal is the agency relationship, shall not be liable to the owner of the animal and shall not be liable to the owner of the animal and shall not be liable to the owner of the animal and shall not be liable to the owner of the animal and shall not be liable to the owner of the animal caused by the agent, absent a written contraction.
captured organizati rescue org that has b	the ani ion to l ganizat cen fav andards (1) (2) (2) (3) (4)	 mal, then the shelter may, in writing, appoint the finder or approved rescue to the agent of the shelter. For purposes of this subsection, the term "approved ion" means a nonprofit corporation or association that cares for stray animal orably assessed by the operator of the animal shelter through the application of the animal is a dog or cat, the finder or approved rescue organization shall hold the animal for the 72 hour holding period provided for in subsection (a of this section or such longer holding period that may be applicable to the shelter by ordinance or local rule. If the animal is not a dog or cat, then the holding period shall be by agreement between the animal shelter and the person or organization receiving the animal. After the expiration of the applicable holding period, the shelter may: a. Transfer the animal by adoption to the person or organization holds the animal as agent, or b. Extend the period of time the finder or rescue organization holds the animal as agent of the shelter. A shelter may terminate an agency created under this subsection at any time by directing the finder or rescue organization to the shelter.

General Assembly Of North Carolina

1 (e) If an animal shelter transfers physical possession of a dog or cat under subsection 2 (c) or (d) of this section, so that the animal is no longer on the animal shelter premises, at least 3 one photograph which depicts the head and face of the animal shall (i) be displayed at the 4 shelter in a conspicuous location that is available to the general public during hours of 5 operation, and (ii) remain posted for the 72 hour or longer holding period established under 6 subsection (a) of this section."

- 7
- SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.